Indictments for murder pending at the date of the last annual report have been disposed of as follows:—

Demetrio Bagni of Plymouth, indicted in Plymouth County, February, 1902, for the murder of Elizabeth Ferioli, at Plymouth, Oct. 22, 1901. He was arraigned Feb. 28, 1902, and pleaded not guilty. William H. Osborn and John J. Mansfield were assigned by the court as counsel for the defendant. In June, 1902, the defendant was tried by a jury, before Hardy and Stevens, JJ. The jury failed to agree upon a verdict, and on Oct. 5, 1903, this indictment was placed on file. The case was in charge of Asa P. French, district attorney.

Andreas Samiczki of Southwick, indicted in Hampden County, September, 1902, for the murder of Anna Samiczki, at Southwick, Sept. 14, 1902. He was arraigned Dec. 24, 1902, and pleaded not guilty. Charles C. Spellman was assigned as counsel for the defendant. On Dec. 29, 1903, he retracted his former plea, and pleaded guilty of murder in the second degree. This plea was accepted by the government, and on Dec. 29, 1903, the defendant was sentenced to State Prison for life. The case was in charge of District Attorney John F. Noxon.

EDWARD CARTER, alias GEORGE EDWARDS, and GEORGE H. BLAKE, indicted in Middlesex County, June, 1902, for the murder of Thomas Keefe, at Everett, Feb. 20, 1902. They were arraigned June 12, 1902, and pleaded not guilty. John J. Walsh and Thomas P. Riley were assigned by the court as counsel for the defendants. On Oct. 13, 1902, the defendants were placed on trial by a jury before Harris and Lawton, JJ. The result was a verdict of not guilty for Blake and a verdict of murder in the second degree for Carter. On June 8, 1903, Carter was sentenced to State Prison for life. The case was in charge of District Attorney George A. Sanderson.

Indictments for murder, found since the date of the last annual report, have been disposed of as follows:—

He was arraigned May 22, 1903, and pleaded guilty of murder in the second degree. This plea was accepted by the government, and he was thereupon sentenced to State Prison for life. David I. Walsh was assigned by the court as counsel for the defendant. The case was in charge of District Attorney Rockwood Hoar.

GEORGE L. O. PERRY, indicted in Middlesex County, February, 1903, for the murder of Agnes McPhee, at Somerville, Oct. 3, 1902, and Clara A. Morton, at Belmont, Nov. 1, 1902. The prisoner was not arraigned. He died on March 8, 1903. The case was in charge of District Attorney George A. Sanderson.

NICOLO FIORE, indicted in Essex County, January, 1903, for the murder of Bennedetto D'Pietro, at Haverhill, Dec. 3, 1902. On Feb. 2, 1903, he was arraigned, and pleaded not guilty. Edmund B. Fuller was assigned by the court as counsel for the defendant. At the September sitting, 1903, of the Superior Court, the defendant was again indicted for manslaughter. Upon this indictment he pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to not less than fourteen nor more than seventeen years to State Prison. The indictment for murder was placed on file. The case was in charge of District Attorney W. Scott Peters.

Frank Keezer appeared as counsel for the defendant. On Oct. 27, 1903, the defendant was tried for manslaughter, and found guilty by the jury. He was thereupon sentenced to State Prison for not less than ten nor more than thirteen years. The case was in charge of District Attorney Oliver Stevens.

PAYMENT OF DAMAGES FOR PROPERTIES TAKEN UNDER RIGHT OF EMINENT DOMAIN.

I urge, as of the utmost importance to the interests of the Commonwealth and of municipalities as well, the enactment of a law authorizing the payment or tender of such sum of money in damages as may be considered by the Commonwealth or a municipality adequate compensation for property taken under the right of eminent domain; and that petitioners shall recover no interest after such offer, tender or payment, except upon such sum in damages as shall, upon final award, exceed the amount of such offer, tender or payment. By reason of delays, in part caused by the congested state of the dockets of the Superior Court, in part because of conditions inevitable in all litigation, and in part because many petitioners are quite content complacently to endure, and to encourage, postponement in the settlement of claims which, until final adjudication, bear interest constantly accruing at a rate which insures an investment of rare excellence, enormous sums of interest are annually added to the public burdens, and the condition must continue unless some change be made in the law. Obviously, in almost every such case awaiting trial, the only issue to be determined is the amount to which the petitioner is rightfully entitled, there being some sum concededly due. The respondent ought not to be compelled to pay interest on an admitted liability, immediate payment of which is suspended only because the petitioner claims the amount to be insufficient. gested legislation would be of practical and substantial benefit to those persons of small means whose property has been taken, who, until payment is made, may be deprived of their resources. Such persons would thus be immediately provided with part, at least, of the amount to which they are entitled, without suffering any prejudice to their right to recover any further damages to which they may be entitled. Interest ought never to be recoverable upon any obligations except such as are disputed, or upon which payment is postponed by the debtor.

THE ACCUMULATION OF BUSINESS IN THE SUPERIOR COURT.

It is apparent that the Legislature must consider, and, at no distant day, take action upon, some plan to substantially relieve the congested condition of business in the Superior Court. No improvement in this respect can be reasonably expected with the present force of justices. Material benefit would result if some of the present duties of the court were transferred to other tribunals, or if the jurisdiction of the latter were extended. To that end, I renew my former recommendation, that exclusive original jurisdiction be conferred upon the Court of Land Registration upon petitions for quieting real estate titles, and upon writs of entry, adequate provision being made for appeal, upon actual questions of fact, to the Superior Court, exceptions and reports upon questions of law to be taken directly to the Supreme Judicial Court.

And I invite the very careful consideration of the General Court to the question whether it is not advisable and appropriate to confer upon the Probate Court original and exclusive jurisdiction upon libels for divorce and petitions for the annulment of marriage.

I suggest that good reason exists for relieving the Superior Court from the duty of approving the by-laws of towns, not only because that court would be so freed from this not very onerous burden, but rather because there is doubt, at least, as to its constitutional power to exercise a function that may be held to be legislative rather than judicial.

It has come to my knowledge that immediate action is required to provide sufficient accommodations for the Superior Court in Suffolk County, as the additional sessions which the present business seems to require cannot, under existing conditions, well be attempted, and those sessions now required by statute cannot be held with reasonable convenience. Business has already accumulated in three counties of the Commonwealth to such an extent as to threaten, and even present, serious embarrassment and delay to litigants, for which little prospect of relief appears, and a like condition is becoming imminent in another county.

SITTINGS OF THE SUPERIOR COURT IN BERKSHIRE COUNTY.

I am informed that a change in the sittings of the Superior Court for civil business in Berkshire County is deemed imperative, and I recommend that the three sittings for civil business now provided for be abolished, and in lieu thereof there shall be two sittings, one to be held beginning on the first Monday in April, and the other on the first Monday of October.

COMPENSATION OF STENOGRAPHERS.

It appears that the statutory provisions with regard to compensation of court stenographers for transcripts of evidence should be amended and perfected, the provisions now obtaining not being consistent, and not ensuring to the stenographers in different sessions a uniform compensation.

CAPITAL TRIALS.

I renew the recommendations heretofore made by me, that the statutes be so amended that capital trials may be conducted by one or more justices of the Superior Court, rather than by two or more, as now required. The reasons which seem to me to render this change in the law advisable were briefly set forth in my former report. The number of justices available for the routine duties of the court ought not to be diminished, except for imperative reasons, since these duties demand the constant service of every member of the court in uninterrupted assignments, which, notwithstanding the addition of two justices by the Legislature of last year, already appear to be inadequate to expeditiously dispose of the cases awaiting trial. The conditions already existing, and emphasized by the additional sessions required by the act of 1903, and the assured increase in the number of cases, make it of the utmost importance to relieve the justices of every duty not peremptorily required by the proper administration of the law.

There appears to me no sufficient reason requiring the attendance of two justices in a capital case, but the law should be so framed as to permit such assignment, if any extraordinary circumstance demands it. The proposed change in the law will in no wise impair any right, or remove any just protection, of the accused.

PROCEDURE IN CASES OF MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

Under the provisions of the Revised Laws, codifying and simplifying criminal procedure, indictments for murder in the second degree may be now found and trial proceed upon that charge, without adhering to the ancient common law rule which required the degree of murder to be found by the jury, and made it necessary to present all indictments for murder as of the first degree. By reason of this very wise modification of the law, approved by a recent decision of the Supreme Court, unnecessary formalities in the trial of cases which are not above the second degree are obviated, to the great relief of the court, and it is now unnecessary for the prosecuting officers to deal with such homicides as capital cases. Murder in the first degree, as determined and defined by the action of juries, appears to be a crime of infrequent occurrence in this Commonwealth; and, while I believe that the law should still recognize murder in the first degree as a capital crime, I anticipate that comparatively few cases will be so defined in indictments, or require trial upon such presentment.

THE BERTILLON SYSTEM.

I recommend the extension of the Bertillon system of measurement and records to all persons convicted and committed on sentences for felony. At present the law requires such record and measurement only in cases where the sentence imposed is for a term of imprisonment of not less than three years for felony. The adoption of this recommendation would tend, in my judgment, to the better protection of the public, and would aid the courts in imposing adequate sentence. In many cases a criminal remains unidentified, and courts and prosecuting officers are ignorant of the fact that the defendant has, as is often the case, been previously convicted of felony. Such convicts, moving from State to State or from county to county, for the purpose of avoiding identification, are often dealt with, from lack of full knowledge, as first offenders, and thus escape exemplary punishment, which they deserve and which justice requires.

COMMITMENTS TO INSANE ASYLUMS.

Believing that persons found not guilty on charges of crime, solely by reason of insanity, should be committed to the department for the criminal insane at Bridgewater, I deem it my duty to renew my recommendation to that effect submitted in my last report. If an institution is to be maintained for the confinement of the so-called criminal insane, it is clear that the class of persons to which I have referred should be there committed. Whether there is any moral distinction to be made between those unfortunates who are of diseased mind, by which some are to be held criminals because of acts for which the law holds them irresponsible, and others, who have done nothing in violation of the law itself, are to be held innocent, I do not presume to decide. Such distinction is, nevertheless, made by our law, and in sentiment such discrimination certainly exists. Just objection may therefore be made by the friends and relatives of the unfortunates committed, without a taint of crime, to our State hospitals, if the latter are compelled to there live in confined association, or in the same institution, with those who are looked upon as criminals, but against whom the sentence of the law is stayed. I am advised that no provision is made at Bridgewater for the confinement of female prisoners committed as criminally insane. It appears that such provision should be made.

Annual Examination of Bonds for the Faithful Performance of Duty in the Custody of the Treasurer and Receiver-General.

Section 16 of chapter 18 of the Revised Laws requires courts and public officers or boards, whose duty it is to approve bonds for the faithful performance of official duties or trusts which are in the custody of the Treasurer and Receiver-General, annually to examine into the sufficiency of such bonds, and report thereon to the Governor and Council.

Such examination, if made in the manner prescribed and with the care and detail requisite to insure the protection of the public interests which such bonds are designed to afford, must in every instance entail upon the official charged with the responsibility of making the examination exacting and sometimes protracted investigation, which, in the case of the courts, is a duty quite foreign to, and possibly inconsistent with, judicial functions, since a question of fact or law on such bond might come before such courts for their official determination.

In the case of similar and no less important bonds deposited with the Controller of County Accounts, the duty to make such examination is imposed upon that officer, or one of his deputies (section 18); and I see no reason why the bonds in the custody of the Treasurer and Receiver-General should not in like manner be examined by him, or under his authority, or by or under authority of the Auditor, and I therefore recommend legislation to accomplish that result.

THE OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

The tabulations hereinafter appearing state the number of cases pending or acted upon with which this department has been concerned. It may be a matter of interest, however, to call specific attention to the fact that during the past year actual trials have been had and an adjudication reached in forty-nine cases involving the assessment of damages for property taken by the Commonwealth, of which twelve were for property taken by the Metropolitan Park Commission, twenty-three by the Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Board, one by the Harbor and Land Commission and thirteen were for the determination of damages sustained by the restriction of the height of buildings in the vicinity of the State House. One hundred and sixty-one cases pending for the settlement of damages for property taken have been settled out of court, - fifty-five for the Metropolitan Park Commission, eighty-nine for the Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Board, fourteen for damages sustained by restriction of the height of buildings in the vicinity of the State House and three for the Harbor and Land Commission.

Annexed to this report are the principal opinions submitted during the current year.

Respectfully submitted,

HERBERT PARKER,

Attorney-General.

OPINIONS.

Taxation — Real Estate Trust — Valuation of Corporate Franchise — Deduction of Stock and Bonds.

Shares of stock in a real estate trust, so called, which represent the rights of the beneficiaries in real estate, under a declaration of trust providing that no right, title or interest in such real estate shall vest in the shareholders, are personal property, and, as such, are not to be deducted by the Commissioner of Corporations in ascertaining (under the provisions of R. L., c. 14, § 38) the valuation of the corporate franchise of a corporation owning such shares, for the purpose of taxation.

With the bonds of such trust, however, which are secured by real estate owned by the trustees, it is otherwise, and the value of such bonds may be deducted from the aggregate value of the shares of the corporation in determining the taxable value of the franchise.

JAN. 6, 1908.

Hon. WILLIAM D. T. TREFRY, Tax Commissioner.

DEAR SIR: — In your letter of November 3 you ask whether, in ascertaining the value of a corporate franchise for the purposes of taxation, you are required, under R. L., c. 14, § 38, to deduct as "real estate subject to local taxation" stocks and bonds of certain real estate trusts, so called.

The stocks are shares representing the rights of beneficiaries in real estate, under certain declarations of trust which provide that no title, interest or estate in any land is to vest in the share-holders, and that the shares are to be and remain as to title personal property only. The bonds are mortgage bonds, secured by real estate owned by such trustees. The trustees have paid local taxes on all the real estate, assessed by the local authorities as of May 1, 1902.

As to both stocks and bonds, it is obvious that, unless they are deducted from the value of the corporate franchise, double taxation will result. Though not taxable to individuals owning them, if they are allowed to enter into the estimated market value of the capital stock of the corporation which owns them, they will be taxed indirectly, while the real estate which makes them valuable has already paid a tax. If the spirit of forbidding double taxation were perfectly carried out in the law, these interests would be deducted, but there are numerous instances where the spirit has failed. The Legislature has not provided that a corporation may deduct from the value of its franchise all property elsewhere taxed, or upon which an unincorporated owner would not be required to pay a tax. For example, if a corporation owns stock in another domestic corporation, this may not be deducted from the value of the former corporation, though to an individual owner it would not be taxable. The Legislature has provided merely for deduction of real estate and machinery upon which a local tax has been paid. Therefore, unless these stocks and bonds are real estate, you are not authorized to deduct them.

First, as to the shares of stock. It may be suggested that, since the trust is not a corporation, the shareholders have the whole equitable estate in the land, subject to certain restrictions contained in the trust agreement, in spite of the provision that their interest shall be only personal, this provision being ineffectual until the property is actually converted into personalty. Such a contention was made in Howe v. Morse, 174 Mass. 491, but the court found it unnecessary to pass upon it. If this is sound, then it may be that the corporation owning an equitable interest in real estate, subject to local taxation to the trustees, should deduct its value.

But while there is no authority upon either side of the question, in my opinion the interest of a shareholder is personal property. One hundred years ago the question was much discussed whether stock in corporations, whose property consisted exclusively of real estate, was not an interest in realty. While a few States held it to be realty until the doctrine was corrected by legislation (see Welles v. Cowles, 2 Conn. 567; Copeland v. Copeland, 7 Bush, 349), the English and most of the American decisions settled down upon the other view, only one of them (Johns v. Johns, 1 Ohio State, 351) basing it solely upon the ground which is the one point of difference between that case and the present, —that the interested parties were incorporated. See Russell v. Temple, 3 Dane Abr. 108 (Mass. 1798); Bligh v. Brent, 2 Y. & C. 268 (1837); Arnold v. Ruggles, 1 R. I. 165 (1837). See In Re Jones' Estate, 172 N. Y. 575.

These leading decisions mention as one ground that the real estate is owned not by the members, but by the corporation, which is a distinct entity; and base their conclusion also upon the ground, which applies as well to the present situation, that the test must be not the nature of the property out of which the dividends come, but the nature of the rights which ownership of the stock carries. These rights are strictly personal in both cases. The fact that the property is owned by a real instead of an artificial person is not, in my judgment, an essential distinction. I advise you, therefore, that you have no authority to deduct these shares owned by the corporation from the value of the corporate franchise.

The bonds, on the other hand, present a different question. The interest of a mortgagee of real estate under a duly recorded mortgage is declared by statute to be real estate for the purposes of taxation. If a corporation is mortgagee, it is held that such interest must be deducted from the market value of its shares in taxing the corporation. Firemen's Insurance Co. v. Commonwealth, 137 Mass. 80. From that decision it is a step forward to hold that the interest of a holder of bonds secured by a trust mortgage of real estate is real estate; but this step has been taken by a divided court in construing the statute exempting "any loan on mortgage of real estate taxable as real estate" (R. L., c. 12, § 4, cl. 2) from taxation as personal property. Knight v. Boston, 159 Mass. 551. In view of these decisions, it is my opinion that you should deduct the value of these bonds from the aggregate value of the shares of the corporation.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

House of Representatives — Order requiring Institution of Specific Proceedings — Attorney-General.

The House of Representatives has no authority to require that the Attorney-General forthwith appear before some justice of the Supreme Judicial Court for the purpose of obtaining from the court an order restraining the stockholders of a gas company from taking action to increase its capital stock, or to require him to institute specific proceedings of any character.

JAN. 8, 1908.

Hon. James J. Myers, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sin: — In response to the order issued by the Honorable House of Representatives, purporting to require the Attorney-General forthwith to appear before some justice of the Supreme Judicial Court for an order restraining the Massachusetts Gas Company and its shareholders from increasing its shares of stock, and for such further or other relief in the premises as to said court shall seem meet, which order is in the form following:—

Ordered, That the Attorney-General forthwith appear before some justice of the Supreme Judicial Court for an order restraining such association, the Massachusetts Gas Companies, or its shareholders, from taking any such action as is contemplated in the above notice to shareholders, and for such further or other relief in the premises as to said court shall seem meet. And the clerk of this House is hereby directed to immediately notify the Attorney-General's office of the passage of this order.—

I submit, for the consideration of that Honorable Body, the following suggestions:—

The Honorable House of Representatives is doubtless aware that it has no authority to fix a limit of time within which the Attorney-General shall discharge the duties of his office.

The House of Representatives has no power to compel action by the Attorney-General, as prescribed by the terms of the order. Chapter 7 of the Revised Laws defines the duties of the Attorney-General, providing that he shall, when required by either branch of the General Court, attend during its sessions and give his aid and advice in the arrangement and preparation of legislative documents and business, and shall give his opinion upon questions of law submitted to him by the Governor and Council or by either branch of the General Court; and it is further provided that he shall appear for the Commonwealth in all suits and other civil proceedings in which the Commonwealth is a party or interested, or in which the official acts and doings of its officers are called in question, in all courts of the Commonwealth, and in such suits and proceedings before any other tribunal, when requested by the Governor or by the General Court or by either branch thereof.

No authority is conferred upon the General Court, or either of its branches, to order the Attorney-General to institute specific proceedings of any character. Should the Legislature pass a statute absolutely requiring the Attorney-General to institute a definite action, such statute would be unconstitutional, as in conflict with Article XXX. of the Declaration of Rights of the Massachusetts Constitution, which provides that in the government of this Commonwealth the legislative department shall never exercise the executive and judicial powers, or either of them.

The deference that I owe to the source of the order addressed to me leads me to state more fully the considerations upon which my conclusions are based.

The form and tenor of the communication from the House of Representatives compels me to remind that honorable body that its constitutional powers and functions are legislative, not executive, and that the limitations of these respective jurisdictions must be inviolately preserved and maintained. The law of this Commonwealth has imposed upon the Attorney-General responsible executive duty and authority, which he can delegate to no other officer or department of the government; and, on the other hand, no other department established by our constitutional law has power to assume the exercise of functions committed by the people to his charge, or power to direct or command him to act upon the dictation of any other influence than that of his own conception of his duty under the law, to which alone he owes official obedience. He can evade no responsibility in the discharge of his duties by yielding to the assumed authority of any other officer or servant of the State. He can find justification for his conduct in office by no plea that he has surrendered his discretion or authority to any other official power whatsoever. That the people may know upon whom to charge a failure in the performance of public duty, each officer must stand responsible for his every act within the field of the jurisdiction committed to his charge and care.

The communication of the Honorable House of Representatives fails to recognize the elemental principles of the constitutional law of the Commonwealth. Its action, as indicated by this communication, is based upon no lawful authority vested in it. I am, therefore, compelled to respectfully advise the Honorable House of Representatives that I cannot act in obedience to the specific command transmitted to me.

It would seem, from the communication addressed to me, that the Honorable House of Representatives is of opinion that facts and conditions exist requiring immediate action in behalf of the Commonwealth. If this be true, I regret that the House of Representatives has not followed the course prescribed by the law in such event, and communicated to me the evidence of such facts and conditions, in order that I might, within the field of my official duty, have given that consideration to the issues which their apparent importance might require, and have advised the Honorable House of Representatives, if it so required, in accordance with my duty in that regard, whether any or what action ought to have been, or ought now to be, taken in the premises, or to have taken such action upon my own initiative as investigation of the facts and evidence submitted to me might have warranted or justified.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Soldiers' Aid — Widow or Dependent Relative of Veteran — Effect of Criminal or Wilful Misconduct.

The provision in R. L, c. 79, § 18, excepting from the benefits of "soldiers' aid" a person, otherwise eligible, who has become poor and unable to support himself by reason of his own criminal or wilful misconduct, is limited in application to veterans; and, in the case of the widow or other dependent relative of a soldier who was himself entitled to receive such aid, the fact that poverty was the result of insanity, caused by intemperance, is not material.

Jan. 13, 1903.

J. F. LEWIS, M.D., Superintendent, State Adult Poor.

DEAR SIR: — You require my opinion upon the question of the right of an inmate of the Worcester Insane Hospital to receive "soldiers' aid," under the provisions of R. L., c. 79, § 18.

It appears that the inmate in question is the widow of a soldier who had a settlement in the city of Boston, and who served in the army of the United States during the war of the rebellion and received an honorable discharge from all enlistments therein; and it is alleged that she is in need of the assistance afforded by the statute by reason of insanity, caused by intemperance.

R. L., c. 79, § 18, provides in part that "if a person who served in the army or navy of the United States in the war of the rebellion and received an honorable discharge from all enlistments therein, and who has a legal settlement in a city or town in the commonwealth, becomes, from any cause except his own criminal or wilful misconduct, poor and entirely or partially unable to provide maintenance for himself, his wife and minor children under the age of sixteen years, or for a dependent father or mother; or if such person dies leaving a widow or such minor children or a dependent father or mother without proper means of support, he or they shall receive such support as may be necessary by the city or town in which they or either of them have a legal settlement."

The Commissioner of Soldiers' Relief for the city of Boston has raised the question whether the exclusion from the benefits of the statute of a soldier who has become poor and entirely or partially unable to provide maintenance for himself and his family through his own criminal or wilful misconduct, may be extended to the following provision with regard to the widow or minor children or the other dependent relatives named of a soldier who was himself within the qualifications of the statute.

It is admitted that there was no express exception in the case of the widow or other dependents named in the statute; but it is contended that it is the spirit of the law that its benefits should not be extended to persons who become poor by reason of their own criminal or wilful misconduct.

While there is much force in this contention, I am of opinion that the exception referred to in the case of the soldier himself should not be construed to include his widow, minor children or dependent father or mother. The purpose of the act was undoubtedly to insure the proper maintenance of worthy veterans and their families, and the aid to be furnished to the widow or other relatives of the soldier himself was in the nature of a reward to him, and an assurance that those dependent upon him should be provided for; and this ought not to be held contingent upon their conduct, especially since it might be a perplexing and difficult problem to determine whether the insanity was due wholly to wilful fault, or to misfortune.

It seems more consistent with the true intent of the act to hold that the provision excepting a soldier reduced to poverty by his own wilful or criminal conduct from the benefit of the statute does not extend to the widow or other dependent relatives of a worthy veteran; and that the alleged fact that the person in question became insane through intemperance is not material.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Civil Service — Chief Superintendent — Officers appointed by the Board of Public Works in the City of Woburn.

Under the provisions of St. 1897, c. 172, amending the charter of the city of Woburn, and creating in section 32 a board of public works, whose affairs are divided into four administrative bureaus, namely, sewers, highways, water and water supply, and public buildings and grounds, officers appointed by such board and designated respectively superintendent of sewers, superintendent of highways, superintendent of water, and superintendent of public buildings and grounds, are not "chief superintendents of departments," within the exemption in Rule VII., Schedule B, Class 12, of the civil service rules, and must be appointed in accordance with such rules.

JAN. 28, 1903.

Hon. CHARLES T. RUSSELL, Chairman, Civil Service Commission.

DEAR SIR: — You have requested my opinion upon the following facts. St. 1897, c. 172, amended the city charter of Woburn, and authorized, in section 32, the establishment of a board of public works, to consist of the mayor and four other persons. Section 34 provides that the four members in addition and the mayor shall be elected one in each year, to serve for a term of four years. Section 35 provides as follows: —

The affairs of said department of public works shall be divided by the board between four administrative bureaus, as follows:—

First. — A bureau of sewers, the chief officer of which shall be known as the commissioner of sewers.

. Second. — A bureau of highways, the chief officer of which shall be known as the commissioner of streets.

Third.— A bureau of water and water supply, the chief officer of which shall be known as the commissioner of water and water supply.

Fourth.—A bureau of public buildings and grounds, the chief officer of which shall be known as the commissioner of public buildings and grounds.

The said four commissioners shall receive an annual salary of two hundred and fifty dollars each. The duties of the several bureaus shall be such as may be referred thereto from time to time by the board of public works; the mayor shall designate each member of said board as commissioner of one of said bureaus, who shall discharge the duties thereof under the direction of the board and the supervision of the mayor. In case of a vacancy in the office of the chief of any of said bureaus, or of the absence or disability of any of them, the mayor may assign the duties of such bureau, during such vacancy, absence or disability, to any other member of the board, who shall thereupon assume the duties thereof. The mayor may transfer any member of the board from the administration of the duties of one bureau to those of another.

Under the provisions of this section, the mayor of Woburn has designated the four members of the board of public works, elected as commissioners of sewers, streets, water and water supply, and public buildings and grounds, respectively.

It is further stated that the board of public works of Woburn, without requisition upon or certification from the Civil Service Commissioners, has appointed the following officers: the superintendent of sewers, at a salary of $600; the superintendent of highways, at a salary of $1,000; the superintendent of water, at a salary of $1,100; and a superintendent of public buildings and grounds, whose salary is not stated; and it is contended that these officers are exempt from the operation of the civil service rules, as being chief superintendents, within the exception provided by Civil Service Rule VII., Schedule B, Class 12, which is as follows:—

Superintendents, assistant superintendents, deputies and persons, other than the chief superintendents of departments, performing any of the duties of a superintendent in the service of any city of the Commonwealth.

It is now well established that a chief superintendent must be an officer acting under a distinct department of the city government, who is authorized to act for and represent that department throughout the whole of its jurisdiction. See Attorney-General v. Trekey, 178 Mass. 186. Attorney-General's Report, 1901, p. 31. Attorney-General's Report, 1902, p. 25.

I am of opinion that, under this construction, no one of the specified appointments of officers by the board of public works is exempt from the operation of the civil service rules, and that such appointments were in violation of the provisions of law relating to the civil service and the rules established thereunder by your commission.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Militia — Governor — Transfer of Company of Militia from One City or Town to Another.

The Governor, as Commander-in-Chief of the volunteer militia of the Commonwealth, has no authority to order the transfer of a company of militia from the city or town where such company is lawfully established and located to some other city or town.

FEB. 18, 1903.

To His Excellency John L. Bates, Governor.

SIR: — Your Excellency has required my opinion whether the Governor, as Commander-in-Chief of the militia, has authority to transfer a company of the militia established and lawfully located in one city or town to another.

The general authority of the Commander-in-Chief is to be found in R. L., c. 16; §§ 24 and 25, which are as follows:—

SECTION 24. The commander-in-chief shall arrange the infantry, artillery and cavalry into regiments, battalions, and, when necessary, into unattached companies, and into not more than two brigades. There shall not be more than six regiments of infantry, one regiment or more of which, at the discretion of the governor, may be changed to heavy artillery and uniformed and instructed as such.

SECTION 25. Petitions for organizing volunteer companies, accompanied by the approval of the mayor and aldermen of cities or the selectmen of towns in which a majority of the petitioners reside, may be granted by the commander-in-chief, due regard being had to a proper distribution of the force throughout the commonwealth; but no new company shall be organized except as provided in section eleven, if thereby the whole number of companies shall exceed the number established in this chapter.

Section 33 provides that the Commander-in-Chief may disband any company of the volunteer militia falling below the required standard of efficiency.

Assuming the company now under consideration to have been regularly organized and established, upon petitions of persons as prescribed in section 25 above quoted, in the city or town within which it is now quartered, and that it is maintained in accordance with the required standards of efficiency, I am of opinion that the Commander-in-Chief is not authorized to transfer, by his own order, such company to another city or town. It is evident, I think, that the militia law of this Commonwealth looks to an organization local in its nature, the company units of which are established at the desire of the inhabitants of any city or town, and are to consist in large part of such inhabitants. In other words, it appears to be the intention of the law that the company shall be composed of persons resident in or near the town where it is quartered, such conditions manifestly tending to maintain interest and activity in the service. In a lesser degree the same idea prevails with regard to the larger divisions of the service. transfer a company from one city or town to another, by the order of the Commander-in-Chief, would be contrary to the evident theory of the militia law, because necessarily it would remove the place of service of the members so transferred to a locality more or less distant from their homes, and thereby either interfere with the efficiency of the company or at least add greatly to the burden of the service. Such transfer by the Commander-in-Chief, if he had the power, might be without a petition by the inhabitants of the city or town to which the company should be transferred, since petitions for the location of militia companies are required only for the organization of new companies.

Such transfers by the Commander-in-Chief might further result in the imposition of serious burdens upon the city or town to which such transfer was made, and this even against the wishes of the citizens thereof, the law requiring the city or town in which a company is located to maintain, at its own expense, a suitable armory and suitable places for parade, drill and target practice. See R. L., c. 16, § 105.

The question Your Excellency submits to me is not entirely free from difficulty. A strained construction of the sections of the statute above referred to might confer this power of transfer or removal upon the Commander-in-Chief; but I am of opinion that the law should be construed strictly, and that, in the absence of direct and specific authority conferred upon the Commander-in-Chief, it is more consonant with the spirit and intent of the law as it exists to hold that such transfer, as suggested by Your Excellency's inquiry, does not lie within the express power of the Commander-in-Chief.

The provisions of section 115 of said chapter, relating to the location of an armory by a majority of the members of a company formed from different places, which location shall be subject to the approval of the Adjutant-General, further confirm this view, as fixing the location of militia companies upon considerations other than those of the order of the Commander-in-Chief.

I am, therefore, of opinion that authority to take such action is not vested in the Commander-in-Chief.

I am, with very great respect, Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Extradition — Fugitive from Justice — Sworn Evidence — Certification of Officer taking Oath.

Under the provisions of R. L., c. 217, § 11, requiring that, in the case of a demand upon the Executive of this Commonwealth for the surrender of a person charged with crime committed within the limits of the demanding State, such demand shall be accompanied by sworn evidence that the person charged is a fugitive from justice, an allegation in the petition of the principal complaining witness to the Executive issuing the demand, stating that the person sought to be extradited is a fugitive from justice, and sworn to before one signing himself, "J—— R——, pro clerk of the court of quarter sessions," such statement not being authenticated by the Executive, and there being no evidence that R—— was authorized to administer oaths, is not "sworn evidence," within the meaning of the statute, and the Governor may not lawfully comply with such demand.

Six:—I have the honor to report that, in the matter of the requisition of the Executive of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania upon Your Excellency for the arrest and extradition of Thomas H. Cummings, an alleged fugitive from justice, charged in Pennsylvania with the crime of false pretences, counsel representing both the alleged fugitive and the agent of the State of Pennsylvania have been given full opportunity to be heard; and after such hearing, and after careful consideration of the papers accompanying the requisition, I am constrained to advise Your Excellency that you may not legally comply with the demand of the Governor of Pennsylvania.

Revised Statutes of the United States, § 5278, makes it the duty of the Executive of a State upon whom a demand is made for the extradition of an alleged fugitive from justice to surrender such fugitive, provided it appears that the papers accompanying the requisition contain (1) a demand of the Executive of the State from which the fugitive has fled; (2) a copy of an indictment found or an affidavit made before a magistrate, charging the fugitive with having committed the crime; and (3) the certification of such indictment or complaint by the Executive.

The constitutional provision for extradition, however, relates only to persons who are fugitives from justice; and the duty to surrender a person demanded does not arise unless it appears that he is, as a matter of fact, a fugitive from justice. Upon this point the decision in general rests with the Executive of the State upon which the demand is made, as a question of fact, to be decided upon such evidence as he may deem satisfactory. See Roberts v. Riley, 116 U. S. 80; Ex parte Reggel, 114 U. S. 642. No method of proof of this fact is prescribed either by the Constitution or by the Statutes of the United States; but in this Commonwealth the Legislature has provided that this material fact shall be established by sworn evidence that the person is a fugitive from justice (R. L., c. 217, § 11), and the Governor of this Commonwealth is not authorized to issue his warrant unless such evidence is submitted to him.

In the application of the Governor of Pennsylvania for the surrender of Thomas H. Cummings, the only allegation that the person demanded is, in fact, a fugitive from justice, is contained in the petition of one Florence S. Zimmerman to the Governor, asking that a requisition be issued. That petition sets forth that Thomas H. Cummings was in the county of Philadelphia and State of Pennsylvania at the time of the commission of the offence charged; that before arrest could be made he fled from the State of Pennsylvania; that he is now in the county of Suffolk in this Commonwealth, and is a fugitive from the justice of Pennsylvania. This statement purports to be sworn to before John L. Reiser, "Pro clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions," and the seal of that court is annexed to the affidavit. There is no other evidence in the papers that said Cummings is in fact a fugitive from justice, except such inferences as may be drawn from the certification by the district attorney of Philadelphia County, which is substantially in accordance with the rules for interstate rendition. This certification is not sworn to, and allegations contained in it, so far as they may be construed to be allegations that Cummings is a fugitive from justice, are conclusions of law, and not sworn evidence of fact, as required by the laws of this Commonwealth.

There appears to be no evidence disclosed by the record that the person before whom Florence S. Zimmerman made oath to the truth of the statements contained in her petition was, by reason of any official position, authorized to administer oaths. A defect in setting forth the authority of the person before whom such oath is taken would ordinarily be cured by the certification of the Executive of the demanding State, which is generally comprehensive enough to include not only a copy of the indictment or complaint, as required by the United States Statute, but also the papers accompanying it. But in this instance it is only the copy of the indictment which the Governor of Pennsylvania certifies to be authentic and duly authenticated in accordance with the laws of Pennsylvania. This being so, and there being no evidence upon the record that John L. Reiser was authorized under the laws of Pennsylvania to administer oaths, I am of opinion that this paper is not sworn evidence, within the meaning of R. L., c. 217, § 11, and that, in the absence of such sworn evidence, Your Excellency cannot lawfully comply with the demand of the Executive of Pennsylvania for the extradition of the said Thomas H. Cummings.

I am, with great respect,

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

City or Town — Grant of Franchise for Use of Streets — Compensation.

In the absence of specific Legislative authority therefor, a city or town has no power to demand compensation for the grant of a franchise for a special use or easement in the streets or ways of such city or town.

MARCH 4, 1903.

Sin: — Your Excellency requires my opinion upon the question "whether or not towns have any rights in highways, for which they can charge for the use thereof; that is, whether or not they could give any one special rights, for compensation, in a highway." I conceive the purport of Your Excellency's inquiry to be whether a municipality has any right to demand and receive compensation for a franchise granted by such municipality for a special use or easement in the streets or ways of the same.

I am of opinion that no such right exists at common law, and can obtain, if at all, only where it has been specially delegated to a town or city by authority and grant of the Legislature. It is clear that public streets and ways, as such, belong to the whole public, represented by the Commonwealth. If local boards of aldermen or selectmen should assume to make grants of special rights to the use of such streets and ways, they could do so only as agents of the general public, since no such power could be delegated to them by the municipality, for the municipality would have neither jurisdiction nor authority in the premises.

Authority to impose restrictions or obligations upon corporations or individuals to which franchises in public ways were to be granted must, as I have suggested, be conferred by special statutory authority. No such general authority now exists by virtue of which a municipality can make such grants for compensation to it, or impose specific local restrictions or obligations upon such use.

It has heretofore been held, in an opinion by one of my predecessors, dated May 25, 1900, that local municipal authorities "had no right to bargain and sell street railway franchises, nor to make terms with street railway companies which should accrue to the financial benefit of the cities and towns in which the locations were given. They could not make a binding contract either for a time limit of the franchise or for the payment of any revenue, directly or indirectly, to the Commonwealth or to a city or town." Attorney-General's Report, 1900, p. 58.

I do not cite judicial authority expressed in a series of opinions of courts of last appeal in support of the views I express, doubting whether Your Excellency will deem it necessary to examine them.

For the reasons I have briefly stated, I have the honor to advise Your Excellency that in my opinion your inquiry should be answered in the negative.

I am, with great respect,

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Soldiers' Aid — Criminal or Wilful Misconduct of Veteran — Wife or Widow and Dependent Relatives.

R. L., c. 79, § 18, is not applicable to a soldier who, by reason of his own criminal or wilful misconduct, has become poor and wholly or partially unable to support himself; and, although such soldier may in other respects be eligible under the statute, neither he nor his family are entitled to the aid therein provided.

MARCH 18, 1903.

CHARLES W. HASTINGS, Esq., Commissioner of State Aid and Pensions.

DEAR SIR: — You ask my opinion upon the construction of the first eleven lines of R. L., c. 79, § 18, the specific questions being as follows:—

- "1. If a soldier debarred by criminal or wilful misconduct from the receipt of soldiers' relief is living with his family, which is otherwise eligible, will his unworthiness bar it also from relief in which he does not share?
- "2. If a soldier debarred as above is living away from his family, and not contributing to its support, will the family also be debarred?"

The first eleven lines of the section above referred to are as follows:—

If a person who served in the army or navy of the United States in the war of the rebellion and received an honorable discharge from all enlistments therein, and who has a legal settlement in a city or town in the commonwealth, becomes, from any cause except his own criminal or wilful misconduct, poor and entirely or partially unable to provide maintenance for himself, his wife and minor children under the age of sixteen years, or for a dependent father or mother; or if such person dies leaving a widow or such minor children or a dependent father or mother without proper means of support, he or they shall receive such support as may be necessary by the city or town in which they or either of them have a legal settlement.

It is clearly the intention of the section above quoted that the aid to be furnished to a person who has served in the army or navy of the United States in the war of the rebellion and has received an honorable discharge from all enlistments therein shall be conditioned upon his worthiness to receive it; and, if he has become poor and entirely or partially unable to provide for himself and his family by reason of his own criminal or wilful misconduct, he fails to bring himself within its terms, and is excluded from all the benefits conferred by it. The right of the family of a soldier or sailor in the war of the rebellion to receive aid under this section exists only when such soldier or sailor is in all respects eligible to receive such aid; and it must follow that where a person, otherwise eligible, is debarred by his own criminal or wilful misconduct from the relief provided, his family is also debarred from such relief, and this is true whether the person so debarred resides with his family or apart from it.

I am therefore of the opinion that both the questions submitted must be answered in the affirmative.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Constitutional Law — Legislature — Insurance — Cities and Towns as Insurers against Fire.

The Legislature may not constitutionally authorize cities and towns to establish fire insurance departments, and to act as insurers against fire of all insurable property within their limits. It follows, therefore, that House Bill No. 386, entitled "an act to authorize cities to insure property against loss by fire," would, if enacted, be unconstitutional and void.

MARCH 27, 1903.

Hon. James J. Myers, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sin: — I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of copy of an order of the Legislature under date of March 23, 1903, of the tenor following: —

That the Attorney-General be requested to inform the General Court whether, in his opinion, the General Court has authority under the Constitution of the Commonwealth to authorize cities and towns to establish fire insurance departments and to act as insurers against fire of all insurable property situated within their limits; and especially to inform the General Court whether, in his opinion, the provisions of House Bill No. 386, now pending, being "An Act to authorize cities to insure property against loss by fire," would, if enacted, be constitutional.

I am clearly of opinion that I must advise the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives that the General Court has no authority under the Constitution of the Commonwealth to authorize cities and towns to establish fire insurance departments, and to act as insurers against fire of all insurable property situate within their limits. My answer to the first inquiry must therefore be in the negative.

Upon the further inquiry of the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives above stated, I am as clearly of opinion that, were the bill cited to become enacted, it would be, in my opinion, inoperative and void, because unconstitutional. The questions presented appear to me to fall plainly within the field of adjudication and opinion of the Supreme Judicial Court of this Commonwealth, so that I do not deem it necessary at great length to set forth the reasons for holding the opinions which I submit, nor to support them by a multitude of citations of established judicial authority. I call the attention of the Legislature to the recent opinion of the justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, transmitted to the House of Representatives in reply to its order of Jan. 14, 1903. reasoning of that opinion and the grounds upon which it is based conclusively fix the limitations upon legislation within such fields as are opened by the inquiries and the proposed bill transmitted to me for examination.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Railroads — Foreign Corporation — Purchase of Stock of Domestic Street Railway Company.

- A railroad incorporated under the laws of another State, carrying on business as a railroad within the Commonwealth, and authorized by its charter to invest in the stock of street railways wherever situated, even to the extent of a controlling interest therein, is not prohibited by the laws of this Commonwealth from acquiring the securities and assuming the ownership of domestic street railway corporations.
- A railroad holding a charter from a foreign State, permitting the acquisition of stock in street railway companies, and also incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth, would not have authority, in the absence of special legislative permission, to purchase the stock of street railway companies incorporated in this Commonwealth, such purchase, in the case of domestic corporations, being forbidden by R. L., c. 111, §77.

APRIL 6, 1908.

Hon. John P. Munroe, Chairman, Committee on Railroads and Street Railways.

DEAR SIR: — The committee on railroads and street railways requests my opinion upon the following question:—

"First. — Has any railroad incorporated in another state, and doing business as such railroad within this State, which has a right under the charter of the foreign State to invest in the securities of street railways wherever existing, the right under the laws of this Commonwealth, to invest in the securities and assume ownership of street railways incorporated in this Commonwealth?"

I assume that the foreign charter referred to is broad enough in terms to give the foreign railroad corporation power to purchase or subscribe for stock of our domestic street railways, even to the extent of a controlling ownership therein.

The right of foreign corporations in general to own stock in Massachusetts street railway companies is recognized by R. L., c. 126, § 11:—

If a foreign corporation which owns or controls a majority of the capital stock of a domestic street railway, gas light or electric light corporation issues stock, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness based upon or secured by the property, franchise or stock of such domestic corporation, unless such issue is authorized by the law of this commonwealth, the supreme judicial court shall have jurisdiction in equity in its discretion to dissolve such domestic corporation. If it appears to the attorney-general that such issue has been made, he shall institute proceedings for such dissolution and for the proper disposition of the assets of such corporation. The provisions of this section shall not affect the right of foreign corporations, their officers or agents, to issue stocks and bonds in fulfilment of contracts existing on the fourteenth day of July in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-four.

There is no provision of our law forbidding such ownership by a foreign railroad corporation. But I do not consider under what circumstances such control might lead to a violation of the Sherman act (26 U.S. Sts. at Large, 209), such inquiry not being germane to the question addressed to me.

The committee further requests my opinion upon a second question:—

"Would such railroad, so incorporated and also incorporated in this Commonwealth, have such authority to purchase the securities of such street railways, unless specially authorized by the Legislature of this State?"

A domestic railroad corporation, without express legislative authority, has no power to acquire the stock of street railways. Such acquisition is, indeed, expressly prohibited to a domestic railroad corporation by R. L., c. 111, § 77:—

No railroad corporation, unless authorized by the general court or by the provisions of the following five sections, shall directly or indirectly subscribe for, take or hold the stock or bonds of or guarantee the bonds or dividends of any other corporation; and the amount of the bonds of one or more other corporations subscribed for and held by a railroad corporation, or guaranteed by it conformably to special authority of the general court or the authority given in said sections, with the amount of its own bonds issued in conformity with sections sixty-three and sixty-four, shall not exceed at any time the amount of its capital stock actually paid in cash.

This second inquiry presents the question whether a railroad corporation, existing by the concurrent legislative authority of this State and of another, may buy stock in our domestic street railway companies, such purchase being authorized by the foreign State, but prohibited as to domestic railroad corporations by our law. The general law concerning such railroad corporations contains no provisions applicable to or conclusive upon the question submitted. R. L., c. 111, § 4:—

A railroad corporation, chartered by the concurrent legislation of this and other states shall, as regards any portion of its road lying within this commonwealth, be entitled to all the benefits and be subject to all the liabilities of the railroad corporations of this commonwealth

This statute appears to be applicable rather to the physical locations, the operation and administration of the railroad within our jurisdiction, and does not appear to take into consideration and control those acts which are ultra vires of a Massachusetts railroad and intra vires of a foreign company. I doubt whether any general answer can be made to the question addressed to me that will be conclusive upon any specific case, for there may be special legislation enacted by our General Court as to certain railroad corporations which would authorize such purchase as is the subject of your inquiry; and an exhaustive examination of all such special legislation would have to be made, to ascertain what might be the rights or authorities of any designated railroad company. I may say, however, that assuming no such permission has been granted by such special law, I hold to the opinion that our courts would decide that such railroad corporation has no lawful authority to purchase the stock of other corporations, but I do not know that this question has yet been specifically decided. I may suggest that, if it should be decided that the railroad corporation, created, for instance, by concurrent legislative action of Massachusetts and Connecticut, has a right to buy stock given by the laws of Connecticut but withheld by the laws of Massachusetts, the Legislature would, in my opinion, have power to revoke the Massachusetts charter, if it deemed that such action by the railroad company was sufficiently injurious to the public interest to warrant such action.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Telephone and Electric Light Companies — Locations for Poles and Wires — "Private Way" — Eminent Domain — Constitutional Law — Compensation.

Assuming that the term "private way" in a proposed act entitled "An Act to authorize the granting to telephone and electric light companies locations for poles and wires upon private ways," is used in its technical sense, as referring to ways laid out under the provisions of R. L., c. 48, § 65, such way is in fact a public way; and the Legislature may authorize the grant of locations for poles and wires upon or along private ways, without provision for compensation for damages occasioned thereby.

If, on the other hand, the term is used as referring to ways or lands held by private individuals, a statute assuming to authorize the location of poles and wires thereon, without provision for the recovery of damages by the owners, is unconstitutional.

APRIL 9, 1908.

Hon. Archie N. Frost, Chairman of Committee on Mercantile Affairs.

DEAR SIR: — The committee on mercantile affairs has submitted to me a draft of an act entitled "An Act to authorize the granting to telephone and electric light companies locations for poles and wires upon private ways," and the committee requests my opinion upon the question whether any of the provisions of said act are within constitutional prohibitions.

I assume that the term "private way" is used in this act in its technical sense; that is, meaning a way laid out under the provisions of R. L., c. 48, § 65, and sections following. Such a way, although it be laid out for the use of a particular person or persons, upon whom the whole or any part of the damages may be assessed, is, nevertheless, a public way, because it exists through the adjudication of a public tribunal, and not through private contractual obligations, expressed or implied, between citizens. For the establishment of such private ways as the statute contemplates there must have been an adjudication and a taking by competent authority, for which taking due compensation must have been provided, and the easements or rights thus created are not limited as to their use or enjoyment to individuals or particular persons, for the ways have become branches and parts of public thoroughfares.

I am of opinion, therefore, that a statute authorizing the proper authorities to grant locations for telephone or telegraph poles upon or along private ways is not open to constitutional objection, and it may be urged that the provisions of R. L., c. 122, § 1, now give such authority. It may therefore be doubted whether any new legislation is required to meet the apparent purpose of the proposed act.

If, however, the term "private way" in the act referred to means a way over private land, in which the public has no interest, the way and the land over which it passes both being private property (and I am informed that the proposed legislation is directed to such state of facts), the absence of any provision for compensation to the owners of such property seriously endangers its validity, on constitutional grounds.

There can be no question that the Legislature may grant the power to exercise the right of eminent domain to telephone and telegraph companies, or to agents who may exercise it in behalf of such companies; and I am of opinion that the Legislature may delegate this power to the mayor and aldermen of cities or to the selectmen of towns, to be exercised in the taking of land for such uses, provided always constitutional requirements are complied with. The act before me, however, contains no express provision for the recovery of damages, and merely applies, or seeks to apply, by reference, the statute regulating the granting of locations along the highways to the takings contemplated by it. The provision for damages contained in R. L., c. 122, to which reference is made in section 3 thereof, relates to owners of lands abutting upon a public way, and contemplates resulting damages occasioned by the erection and maintenance of poles, rather than for the taking of land or the creation of any new right impairing private property interests.

The provisions of the Revised Laws, above cited, in my opinion are not sufficient (for they do not extend, nor are they applicable, to the case of taking property by eminent domain) to secure constitutional rights to persons whose property is taken by the proposed act. I am, therefore, of opinion that reference to the above provisions of the Revised Laws does not bring the proposed act within constitutional limitations.

I am further of opinion that the term "private way," as used in the act submitted to me, upon established rules of construction, whatever be the intent of the Legislature, now entertained, will be held to be a private way as defined by existing statutory law; that is, a way established and dedicated through the exercise of the right of eminent domain by some tribunal of competent jurisdiction. I hold, therefore, that the act, in its present form, does not by its terms authorize the taking of private property or the invasion of private rights, and does not authorize the location of poles and wires upon private lands as such, but only within the limits of the statutory private way. I venture to suggest that the use of the words in the draft of the act, "owners of such private ways," is inartificial and ambiguous. A private way contemplated and defined by our statutes is not strictly private property, but, in a sense, belongs to the public, and is an easement dedicated by a constitutional adjudication to a quasi-public use.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Chief of Cattle Bureau — Orders or Regulations — Approval — Publication — Governor and Council.

R. L., c. 90, § 4, as amended by St. 1902, c. 116, § 3, which in part provides that no orders or regulations made by the Chief of the Cattle Bureau shall take effect until approved by the Governor and Council, and that such orders or regulations shall be published in the manner therein prescribed, requires that the method of publication shall be prescribed by such orders or regulations, and shall be subject to the approval of the Governor and Council.

APRIL 29, 1908.

To His Excellency John L. Bates, Governor.

Sin: — I beg to report that I have considered the communication to Your Excellency from the Chief of the Cattle Bureau, with regard to the publication of the rules and regulations made by authority of R. L., c. 90, § 4, as amended by St. 1902, c. 116, § 3.

R. L., c. 90, § 4, provides as follows: -

The board may from time to time make orders and regulations relative to the prevention, suppression and extirpation of contagious diseases of domestic animals, and relative to the inspection, examination, quarantine, care and treatment or destruction of such animals which are affected with, or have been exposed to, such diseases, . . . and all orders and regulations made by the board shall be entered on its records and a copy thereof shall be sent to each inspector in the city or town to which the orders or regulations apply, and be published by him in such manner as the orders or regulations may prescribe.

St. 1902, c. 116, amended this provision by transferring the powers and duties of the Board of Cattle Commissioners to a Chief of the Cattle Bureau of the State Board of Agriculture, and further provided that no orders or regulations made by him, under authority of R. L., c. 90, §§ 4 and 7, should take effect until approved by the Governor and Council.

The Chief of the Cattle Bureau inquires of Your Excellency whether or not the method of publication should be defined in the rules and regulations which are approved by the Governor and Council, under the provisions of the act above referred to.

I am of opinion that R. L., c. 90, § 4, clearly requires that the method of publication of the rules and regulations provided for therein should be prescribed by such rules and regulations and subject to the approval of the Governor and Council.

I am, with great respect,

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Street Railways — Boston Elevated Railway Company — Location — Metropolitan Park Commissioners — Tax — Contract — Constitutional Law.

By St. 1897, c. 500, § 10, providing in part that during a period of twenty-five years from the date of the passage thereof no taxes or excises, not then actually imposed upon street railways, should be assessed upon the Boston Elevated Railway Company except as defined in such statute, a contract was created between the Boston Elevated Railway Company and the Commonwealth; and St. 1900, c. 418, § 2, authorizing the Board of Metropolitan Park Commissioners to grant to street railways locations over roadways, boulevards, parks and reservations subject to its control, "upon such terms, conditions and obligations and for such compensation as the public interests and a due regard for the rights of the Commonwealth may require," in so far as it relates to compensation for grants of location, is not applicable to such company.

The ultimate disposition of money received for taxes from the Boston Elevated Railway Company under the provisions of St. 1897, c. 500, § 10, forms no part of the contract created thereby, and may be changed or modified in such manner as the Legislature may deem proper. Such proportion of the taxes received from the Boston Elevated Railway Company as is based upon the mileage owned or controlled by such corporation within metropolitan park reservations may therefore be credited, under the provisions of St. 1900, c. 413, § 5, to the sinking fund created to meet the expenses of establishing and maintaining such reservations.

APRIL 30, 1903.

Hon. WILLIAM B. DE LAS CASAS, Chairman, Metropolitan Park Commission.

DEAR SIR: — Your letter of April 14 requests my opinion upon certain questions which arise in connection with a proposed grant of location to the Boston Elevated Railway Company, and relate to the effect of St. 1900, c. 413, an act authorizing the Metropolitan Park Commission to grant street railway locations, upon St. 1897, c. 500, which defines and determines the rights and duties of the Boston Elevated Railway Company and the West End Street Railway Company.

You state that you desire to know the effect of section 5 of St. 1900, c. 413, upon section 10 of St. 1897, c. 500; and "more particularly whether any portion of the taxes and compensation to be paid under said section 10 by said railways to the Treasurer of the Commonwealth will, under said section 5 of chapter 413 of St. 1900, be credited to the sinking fund of the loan under which the boulevard or park in which the location was granted by this Board was provided, or will all be distributed to the cities and towns within which the track is located; and, in either event, whether this commission has the right to require of the railway company additional compensation."

St. 1897, c. 500, an act to promote rapid transit in the city of Boston and vicinity, establishes in section 10 a toll or fare which may be charged by the railways above referred to "which shall not exceed the sum of five cents for a single continuous passage in the same general direction upon the roads owned, leased or operated by it;" and further provides that this sum shall not be reduced by the Legislature during a period of twenty-five years from and after the passage of the statute. The remainder of the section is as follows:—

During said period of twenty-five years no taxes or excises not at present in fact imposed upon street railways shall be imposed in respect of the lines owned, leased or operated by said corporation, other than such as may have been in fact imposed upon the lines hereafter leased or operated by it at the date of such operating contract or of such lease or agreement hereafter made therefor nor any other burden, duty or obligation which is not at the same time imposed by general law on all street railway companies: provided, however, that said corporation shall be annually assessed and shall pay taxes now or hereafter imposed by general law in the same manner as though it were a street railway company, and shall, in addition, as compensation for the privileges herein granted, and for the use and occupation of the public streets, squares and places, by the lines of elevated and surface railroad owned, leased and operated by it, pay to the Commonwealth, on or before the last day of November in each year, during said period of twenty-five years, an annual sum, the amount of which shall, in each year ending the last day of September, be determined by the amount of the annual dividend paid in that year by said corporation, in the following manner: - If the annual dividend paid is six per cent. or less, or if no dividend is paid, the sum payable that year shall be a sum equal to seven eighths of one per cent. of the gross earnings of all the lines of elevated or surface railroads owned, leased or operated by said corporation; if said dividend exceeds six per cent. then a sum equal to the excess of the dividends over six per cent. in addition to said seven eighths of one per cent. of said gross earnings. The above sum shall be paid into the treasury of the Commonwealth and distributed among the different cities and towns in proportion to the mileage of elevated and surface main track, reckoned as single track, which is owned, leased or operated by said corporation and located therein.

St. 1900, c. 413, provides in section 1 that the Board of Metropolitan Park Commissioners shall have authority to grant locations as therein provided to street railways within the roads, boulevards, parks and reservations in its care and control. Section 2 provides that, after due notice and hearing, "if in the opinion of the board public convenience and necessity so require," it may grant such location or any part thereof upon such terms, conditions and obligations and for such compensation as the public interests and a due regard for the rights of the Commonwealth may require. Section 5 is as follows:—

The share of the tax paid by any street railway company operating hereunder, into the treasury of the Commonwealth, which would under other provisions of law be apportioned to the city or town within which its tracks laid hereunder are situated, shall be apportioned to the Commonwealth and credited by the treasurer to the sinking fund of the loan to which the expenditure for the road, boulevard, park or reservation in which the tracks are located was charged.

St. 1897, c. 500, is a special act, limiting and defining the duties, rights and privileges of particular corporations; and the regulations and conditions thereby made applicable to such corporations would under the ordinary rules of statutory construction, remain unaffected by a later general enactment upon the same subject. Section 10, moreover, which fixes a minimum toll or fare which for a period of twenty-five years may not be altered or reduced by the Legislature, and provides the method of taxation of the corporations which are within its terms, also establishes the manner and rate of compensation to be paid by the Boston Elevated Railway Company for the use and occupancy of the public streets, squares and places over which its tracks may be laid; and in the matter of such compensation, as well as in respect of the amount of the fare which may be charged and the method of taxation to be adopted, constitutes a contract which may not be altered or impaired by subsequent legislation. See Attorney-General's Report, 1901, p. 14.

Such compensation is to be paid annually to the Commonwealth during a period of twenty-five years, and is to be determined in each year by the annual dividend for that year. If such dividend does not exceed six per cent., the sum paid to the Commonwealth as compensation for the use of public streets and ways is to be equal to seven-eighths of one per cent. of the gross earnings of all the lines of elevated or surface railroads owned, leased or operated by the Boston Elevated Railway Company. If it exceeds six per cent., an additional sum is to be paid, equal to the excess of such dividend over six per cent. The money so received is to be paid into the treasury of the Commonwealth, and thereafter distributed among the different cities and towns in proportion to the mileage of elevated and surface main track which is owned, leased and operated by such corporation in each city or town.

I am of opinion that it was the purpose of the Legislature by these provisions to establish a rate of compensation for the use of public streets, ways and squares by the Boston Elevated Railway Company, which, for a period of twenty-five years, should be payment in full for such use and occupation; and that the method and rate of compensation so established forms an important element in the contract between the Commonwealth and the railroad company, which cannot constitutionally be altered or amended for the purpose or with the effect of subjecting such corporation to the burden of any additional payment on account of the use and occupation of public streets or ways. That such would be the effect of applying the provisions of St. 1900, c. 413, § 2, to the corporation in question cannot be doubted. The sum annually due to the Commonwealth as compensation for such use and occupancy is based upon the gross earnings of all the lines owned or controlled by it; and if, upon the granting of the right to lay tracks over land within the jurisdiction of the Metropolitan Park Commission, a further charge should be imposed therefor, it would result that the corporation would pay in compensation for such privilege not only the proportionate part of the amount annually due the Commonwealth under the provisions of St. 1897, c. 500, § 10, based upon the gross earnings of that particular line of track, but also the compensation fixed and determined by the commission under the provisions of St. 1900, c. 413, § 2, — an additional charge, not contemplated or provided for in the original contract. follows, therefore, that the Metropolitan Park Commission is not authorized to require of the Boston Elevated Railway Company, under the provisions of St. 1900, c. 413, § 2, any additional compensation for the right to occupy roads, boulevards, parks and reservations under its care and control.

The second question submitted deals with the disposition of the taxes paid by the Boston Elevated Railway Company, under the provisions of St. 1897, c. 500, § 10, to the Treasurer of the Com-By this section it is provided that the taxes paid by such corporation into the treasury of the Commonwealth shall be distributed among the different cities and towns in proportion to the mileage of track owned, leased or operated by it within the limits of each city or town. St. 1900, c. 413, § 5, provides that, where locations are granted in boulevards, parkways or open places controlled by the Metropolitan Park Commission, that proportion of the tax which would be ultimately paid to the city or town in which such parkways, boulevards or open places are located, if they were not under the control of the Commonwealth, shall be apportioned to the Commonwealth, and credited by the Treasurer to the sinking fund of the loan created to meet the expenses of that particular work.

I am of opinion that the ultimate disposition of money received for taxes under the provisions of St. 1897, c. 500, § 10, forms no part of the contract created thereby, and may be changed or modified in such manner as the Legislature may deem proper, without constituting a violation of the contractual relation subsisting between the Commonwealth and the Boston Elevated Railway Company; since the corporation can have no further interest in such money after payment to the Commonwealth, and no additional burden or obligation is imposed upon it by crediting a portion of the amount so paid to the sinking fund of a metropolitan park loan, instead of distributing such portion to the various cities and towns through which its tracks extend. The provision of St. 1900, c. 413, § 5, that such proportion of the taxes received from the Boston Elevated Railway Company as is based upon the mileage owned or controlled by such corporation within metropolitan park reservations may be credited to the sinking fund of the loan created to meet the expenses of establishing and maintaining such reservations, is therefore applicable to the sums received as taxes from such corporation under the provisions of St. 1897, c. 500, § 10.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Flats — Planting and Cultivation of Oysters — Licenses — City or Town Authorities — Boundaries.

- Under R. L., c. 91, §§ 104 and 105, the authority of the mayor and board of aldermen in cities, and of the selectmen in towns, to grant licenses for the planting and cultivation of oysters upon flats between high and low water mark, is limited to licenses for the placing of shells upon such flats, upon written consent of the owner thereof; and all other operations connected with the cultivation or digging of oysters must be carried on below mean low-water mark.
- R. L., c. 91, § 105, does not require that the licenses granted thereunder shall specify the shore line in feet, if reference may be otherwise made to metes and bounds which are readily ascertainable.

MAY 7, 1903.

D. F. WILEY, Esq., Chairman, Board of Selectmen, Wellfleet, Mass.

DEAR SIR:—I have your letter of March 28, requesting my opinion upon the construction of R. L., c. 91, §§ 104 and 105, relative to the granting of licenses for the growing and digging of oysters.

The selectmen of towns are local officers, and as such are not entitled to the opinion of the Attorney-General; but, inasmuch as the question is one of general importance, and, in a measure, involves rights of the public and of the Commonwealth, I have deemed it expedient to submit for your guidance my views upon the subject.

R. L., c. 91, § 104, is as follows:—

The mayor and aldermen of a city or selectmen of a town may, by writing under their hands, grant a license for a term not exceeding ten years to any inhabitant thereof to plant, grow and dig oysters at all times of the year, or to plant oyster shells for the purpose of catching oyster seed, upon and in any waters, flats and creeks therein, at any place where there is no natural oyster bed; not, however, impairing the private rights of any person, nor materially obstructing any navigable waters.

Section 105 provides that: -

Such license shall describe by metes and bounds the waters, flats and creeks so appropriated and shall be recorded by the city or town clerk before it shall have any force, and the licensee shall pay to the mayor and aldermen or selectmen, for their use, two dollars, and to the clerk fifty cents. The shore line of such licensed premises shall be the line of mean low water for the planting and growing of oysters, and the line of high water for the planting of oyster shells, but the provisions of this section shall not authorize the placing of such shells upon the land of a riparian owner between high and low water mark without his written consent.

By the first of the above sections the mayor or aldermen of a city or the selectmen of a town are authorized to grant licenses, under certain conditions, first, to grow and dig oysters at all seasons of the year; and, second, to plant oyster shells for the purpose of catching oyster seed upon and in any waters, flats and creeks within the limits of such city or town at any place where no natural oyster bed is found. Section 105 provides that the shore line of such licensed premises shall be the line of mean low water for the planting and growing of oysters, and, with the consent in writing of the riparian owner, the line of high water for the planting of oyster shells.

The effect of this provision is to limit the right of the selectmen to grant licenses for the digging and growing of oysters to flats below low-water mark, and to distinguish such licenses from those which, with the consent of the riparian owner, permit the placing of oyster shells upon the flats between high and mean low water mark. The apparent purpose of this distinction is to permit the licensee to place oyster shells upon the land of the riparian proprietor between high and low water mark, in order to catch the oyster seed or "spat," which are brought by the currents into contact with and adhere to such shells. The shells so placed, and to which the growing oysters are attached, may then be removed to other beds below mean low-water mark, with the result of improving the size and quality of the oysters.

The digging of oysters, however, might constitute a serious interference with private rights; and for this reason, as well as for the reason that growing oysters must be constantly covered by water, the further cultivation and the harvesting of oysters so planted must be carried on below low-water mark.

I am therefore of opinion that the statute above quoted limits the authority of your board to the granting of licenses for the placing of shells upon flats between high and low water mark, and then only with the written consent of the riparian owner, and that all further cultivation and digging of oysters must be conducted below mean low-water mark.

Your letter contains the further question, whether a "lease for the cultivation of oysters below mean low-water mark may be granted with a shore bound without the number of feet being specified on the shore."

I am of opinion that the requirement of the statute that the licenses shall describe by metes and bounds the waters, flats and creeks so appropriated, does not require the shore line specified in feet, if reference is otherwise made to metes and bounds which are readily ascertainable. As a matter of practice, however, it would seem preferable that, wherever it is possible, the license should specify the distance in feet.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Extradition — Attorney-General — Expediency — Governor — Good Faith of Affidavit of Complaining Witness.

The duty of the Attorney-General to advice the Executive upon questions of expediency in matters of extradition, as required by R. L., c. 217, § 12, can only arise in cases of demands made upon the Governor for the surrender of persons held in custody or under recognizance in this Commonwealth to answer for crime, or by virtue of any civil process.

In the case of an application for the issuance of a demand for extradition upon another State, the Executive of this Commonwealth is not to be controlled by the allegations contained in such application, and should satisfy himself upon the truth of every material fact alleged therein. He may inquire, therefore, if there be doubt in his mind, as to the good faith of the affidavit of the principal complaining witness, required by the rules for the practice of interstate rendition, in cases of fraud, false pretences or embezzlement, and setting forth that the sole purpose for which extradition is sought is the punishment of the accused, and that such witness does not intend to use the prosecution for any private purpose.

MAY 25, 1903.

To His Excellency John L. Bates, Governor.

Sin: — I have the honor to report that I have examined the application of the district-attorney for Suffolk County for a requisition upon the Governor of the State of New York for the extradition of Moody Merrill, charged by indictment with the crime of embezzlement and larceny, together with the papers accompanying such application, and have heard the parties appearing in remonstrance to the issuance by Your Excellency of the requisition sought to be obtained.

R. L., c. 217, § 12, by virtue of which the papers in this case are now before me, is as follows:—

Upon such demand or application, the attorney-general or a district attorney shall, if the governor so requires, forthwith investigate the grounds thereof, and report to the governor all the material facts which may come to his knowledge, with an abstract of the evidence in the case; and, in case of a person demanded, whether he is held in custody or is under recognizance to answer for a crime against the laws of this commonwealth or of the United States, or by force of any civil process, with an opinion as to the legality or expediency of complying therewith.

Under this section the duty and authority of the Attorney-General in the premises must, in my opinion, be limited to making an investigation into the grounds of the application, and reporting to Your Excellency such material facts as may be brought to his knowledge, together with an abstract of the evidence in the case; and his power to advise Your Excellency upon the expediency of granting such application must be strictly confined to cases of demands made upon Your Excellency for the extradition of persons held in custody or under recognizance in this Commonwealth to answer for crime, or by virtue of any civil process. Upon this construction of the statute, and in accordance with its provisions, I have the honor to submit for Your Excellency's consideration the following report.

With regard to the papers submitted to me and accompanying the application of the district attorney for Suffolk County, I have to advice Your Excellency that, in my opinion, the provisions of the United States statute regulating the matter of extradition (Rev. St. of U. S., c. 5278) and of the Massachusetts statute upon the same subject (R. L., c. 217, § 11) have been in all respects complied with. The papers, as at first laid before me, were not technically in proper form, in that they did not contain the affidavit of the principal complaining witness, setting forth that the application is made in good faith, and that such witness does not expect to and will not use the prosecution for the collection of a debt or - for any purpose, as required by the rules for the practice of interstate rendition which are applicable to requisitions issued by Your Excellency; this omission was, however, subsequently remedied by the filing of the affidavit as required, and the papers, as they now appear, are in accordance with the requirements of law and of the rules above mentioned, and therefore in legal and proper form.

I am of the opinion that the Executive may well hold that every presumption of fact should attach to the allegations made by the district attorney, when that officer himself applies for the extradition. This presumption may, in cases, be rebutted by evidence; but none such has been submitted to me, and I am of opinion that the presumption holds in favor of this application. But, beyond the application of the district attorney, and necessary for its support, is the required affidavit of good faith by the party complaining, upon whose allegations the prosecution rests. Such affidavit, in form sufficient, accompanies the papers. Since its presentation is itself a condition precedent to the issuance of the Executive demand upon a foreign State, which demand is, in effect, a pledge of the good faith of the demanding State, it follows that the Executive should satisfy himself that the affidavit is in fact true, for, if false, it may well be treated in the Executive discretion as a nullity.

The Executive has the right to require, therefore, if there be doubt in his mind, that the truth of the affidavit be established to his satisfaction. Evidence by the remonstrants was offered as tending to disprove the allegations of the affidavit, but, as offered and presented before me, it was not, in my opinion, sufficient to support the remonstrants' contention; and, in the absence of other and more conclusive evidence, I am constrained to advise Your Excellency that the papers are in proper form, and that there appears to be no reason why the application of the district attorney for Suffolk County may not be granted.

I am, with great respect,

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Intoxicating Liquors — Importation and Sale — Original Package.

The Legislature, since the enactment of 26 U. S. Sts. at Large, 313, providing that "all fermented, distilled or other intoxicating liquors or liquids transported into any state or territory... shall, upon arriving in such state or territory, be subject to the operation and effect of the laws of such state or territory enacted in the exercise of its police powers, to the same extent and in the same manner as though such liquids or liquors had been produced in such state or territory," has authority to repeal R. L., c. 100, § 33, which permits the sale of intoxicating liquors in the original casks or packages of importation, and to enact laws subjecting the possession, use or sale of such liquors within the limits of the Commonwealth, to all the restrictions and penalties imposed upon the possession, use or sale of other intoxicating liquors therein.

JUNE 1, 1903.

To His Excellency John L. Bates, Governor.

Sin: — Your Excellency requires my opinion upon the present status of the statutory law of this Commonwealth with relation to the keeping for sale or sale of intoxicating liquors in the original packages of importation from another State.

Section 33 of chapter 100 of the Revised Laws has been in force in substantially its present form for many years. Its existing provisions are as follows:—

Importers of liquor of foreign production which is imported under authority of the laws of the United States may own, possess, keep or sell such liquor in the original casks or packages in which it was imported and in quantities not loss than those in which the laws of the United States require such liquor to be imported, and, when sold, it shall be as pure and unadulterated as when imported.

The original enactment was doubtless for the purpose of giving recognition in our law to the requirement of the federal constitution with relation to commerce between the States; and until Congress should have suspended the exclusive control of interstate merchandise, the States had no authority, by police regulation or otherwise, to restrict or interfere with free importation and exportation between the States. Until the enactment of the socalled Wilson bill (26 U. S. Sts. at Large, 313), in 1890, this restraint upon State legislation continued in force; but by that bill it was provided "that all fermented, distilled or other intoxicating liquors or liquids transported into any state or territory, or remaining therein for use, consumption, sale or storage therein, shall, upon arrival in such state or territory, be subject to the operation and effect of the laws of such state or territory enacted in the exercise of its police powers, to the same extent and in the same manner as though such liquids or liquors had been produced in such state or territory, and shall not be exempt therefrom by reason of being introduced therein in original packages or otherwise."

Congress thereby delegated authority to the several States to make such police regulations as they might deem necessary with regard to intoxicating liquors transported therein to be there used, consumed, sold or stored. Since the enactment of this federal statute, it has therefore been competent for the Legislature to remove the protection theretofore offered to intoxicating liquors in the original packages of importation, and to subject said liquors kept here for use, sale or storage to the penalties and restrictions applicable to all other intoxicating liquors.

I assume that the General Court has not been called upon to exercise the authority now and since 1890 vested in it; at all events, no legislation in this State has followed the changed conditions due to the enactment of the Wilson bill It is evident that the controlling reason for the immunity of liquors in the original packages no longer exists, and the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives may well consider the expediency of eliminating from our statutes a law which now appears to have little reason and no necessity for its justification.

Aside from the questions of public welfare as affected by the sale of intoxicating liquors, it is obvious that the operation of the provisions of section 33 of chapter 100 of the Revised Laws is to give what would seem to be a wholly unwarranted privilege or preference to certain liquors not attaching to others; and to permit certain persons, without any of the restrictions provided by the license laws, to keep and sell intoxicating liquors in conflict with the entire spirit of our law, and in unrestrained competition with those persons who have, in obedience to the requirements of our legislation, subjected themselves to serious liabilities and to large expenditures to secure and avail themselves of a license to engage in the liquor trade.

Were the section of the Revised Laws above quoted to be repealed, all protection heretofore attaching to liquors in the original package of importation, but within this State for use, distribution, storage or sale, would be withdrawn; and after such repeal, all intoxicating liquors and those engaged in commerce therein would be subject to uniform and consistent provisions of law.

The present condition of our statutes would seem to indicate either that public opinion or the legislation of our Commonwealth has not kept pace with that of the federal Congress, and that Massachusetts has not availed herself of an opportunity that the federal government long since offered to her.

I am, with great respect,

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Volunteer Militia — Rifle Ranges — Use by United States Troops — Adjutant-General.

The Adjutant-General has no authority either to grant or to refuse permission to United States troops to use the rifle ranges furnished under the provisions of R. L., c. 16, § 105, for the use of the volunteer militia, by the several cities and towns.

JUNE 1, 1908.

Brig.-Gen. SAMUEL DALTON, Adjutant-General.

DEAR SIR: — The only provision relating to rifle ranges for the use of the volunteer militia is R. L., c. 16, § 105, which in part provides that "it shall be the duty of the mayor and aldermen and selectmen to provide for each regiment, battalion, corps of cadets, or portion of the volunteer militia, within the limits of their respective cities and towns, . . . suitable places for parade, drill and target practice." Provision is elsewhere made in R. L., c. 16, for the control and management of armories by the Adjutant-General (§ 111), and for their use and occupation (§ 116), as well as for the maintenance of suitable places for drill (§ 113); but there is no specific enactment regulating the use and occupation of the rifle ranges which section 105 requires cities and towns to furnish.

Under the provision above referred to, therefore, I am of opinion that it is the duty of cities and towns to establish and maintain, for the use of the local militia, suitable places for target practice; but that the use thereof by such militia need not necessarily be exclusive of all other use of such rifle range by the city or town within the limits of which it is situated. If reasonable opportunity for target practice is afforded to the volunteer militia, the statutory obligation of such city or town is fulfilled, and the duty of the Adjutant-General in the premises must be confined to securing such result.

It follows, therefore, that the Adjutant-General has no authority either to grant or to refuse permission to United States troops to use the rifle range now established in the city of Lynn, if such use does not in any respect interfere with or restrict the use of such rifle range by the volunteer militia. I am of opinion, however, that if permission be given for the use of such rifle range by United States troops, it should be by specific action of the city government of Lynn, the terms of such use and its limitations being definitely and exactly set forth, distinctly subordinating such use to the requirements and needs of the militia of this Commonwealth, and providing a summary right of revocation of the permission so accorded.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Foreign Corporations — Interstate Commerce.

Foreign corporations, operating steamship lines between Boston and ports in other States or in foreign countries, which do no transportation business wholly within the Commonwealth, and no other business therein except such as is incidental to their foreign business, are engaged in the business of interstate and foreign commerce, the regulation of which is vested exclusively in the Congress of the United States, and are not subject to the provisions of R. L., c. 126, §§ 4 and 6, requiring foreign corporations having a usual place of business within the Commonwealth to appoint the Commissioner of Corporations their attorney for the service of legal process, and to file in the office of such commissioner certain sworn statements concerning their capital stock.

JUNE 5, 1903.

Hon. WILLIAM D. T. TREFRY, Commissioner of Corporations.

Dear Sir: — In your letter of May 21 you ask my opinion upon the question whether certain foreign corporations, operating steamship lines between Boston and ports in other States and countries, which do no transportation business from point to point within the Commonwealth, or any local business, except such as is strictly incident to their foreign business, are subject to sections 4 and 6 of chapter 126 of the Revised Laws. That statute provides that every foreign corporation, except foreign insurance companies, which has a usual place of business in this Commonwealth, shall, before transacting business in this Commonwealth, appoint the Commissioner of Corporations its attorney for the service upon it of legal process, and shall file in his office certain sworn statements concerning its capital stock.

The sole business of the companies in question is interstate and foreign commerce. The power of government to regulate it in the manner of the statute is vested exclusively in Congress, and, whether Congress has done all that is proper in that regard or not, the State has no jurisdiction to attach such conditions to the right of transacting it. Statutes requiring the filing of sworn statements and the appointment of a local attorney are not included within those eminently local regulations made in the fair exercise of the police power of the State, which, in the absence of federal regulations over the same subject, are free from constitutional objections. It is, therefore, beyond the power of a State to make these requirements of such foreign companies. See Crutcher v. Kentucky, 141 U. S. 47; Robbins v. Shelby County, 120 U. S. 489; Cooper Mfg. Co. v. Ferguson, 113 U. S. 727.

In the first case, in which the court held invalid a statute providing that the agent of a foreign express company should not carry on business within this State without first obtaining a license, and satisfying the State Auditor that the company was possessed of a certain amount of capital, Bradley J., by way of illustration, said: "Would any one pretend that a State Legislature could prohibit a foreign corporation - an English or a French transportation company, for example - from coming into its borders and landing goods and passengers at its wharves, and soliciting goods and passengers for a return voyage, without first obtaining a license from some State officer, and filing a sworn statement as to the amount of its capital stock paid in? And why not? Evidently because the matter is not within the province of State legislation. but within that of national legislation. . . . And the same thing is exactly true with regard to interstate commerce as it is with regard to foreign commerce."

It is to be presumed that the Legislature of Massachusetts, when it enacted the provisions of R. L., c. 126, §§ 4-6, knowing that it had no power to impose conditions upon foreign commerce, did not intend, in its use of the phrase "doing business in this Commonwealth," to include the business of transporting passengers and freight between the port of Boston and other States and countries. I advise you, therefore, that these provisions have no application to the companies in question.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Constitutional Law — Maximum Day's Work — Cities and Towns — Counties.

The Legislature may constitutionally limit the duration of a day's work for laborers, workmen and mechanics, employed by or in behalf of the Commonwealth, to a period of eight hours; but a like provision applicable to counties, and to cities and towns which have accepted the provisions of R. L., c. 106, § 20, making eight hours a day's work for the employees thereof, would be unconstitutional, as taking property without due compensation and without due process of law.

In respect of legislation fixing eight hours as a day's work for employees of counties, cities and towns, a county is not to be distinguished from a city or town.

JUNE 15, 1903.

Sir: — Your Excellency has required my opinion upon the legal, and, more specifically, upon the constitutional, aspects of an act entitled "An Act to constitute eight hours a maximum day's work for public employees." The act contains the following provisions: —

That eight hours shall constitute a day's work for all laborers, workmen and mechanics employed by or on behalf of the Commonwealth or any county;

That every contract to which the Commonwealth or any county is a party, involving such employment, shall contain a stipulation that no such employee shall be permitted or required to work more than eight hours in any one day;

That the wages to be paid shall not be less than the prevailing rate for a day's work in the same trade or occupation in the locality where such public work is done;

That this act shall apply to all such employees engaged upon any works which are or intended to be the property of the Commonwealth, or of any county therein, or of any city or town which has accepted the provisions of R. L., c. 106, § 20, whether such employees are employed by public authority, by a contractor, or by any other private person;

That any agent or official of the Commonwealth or of any county violating any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of fifty dollars for each offence; That the provisions of the act shall not apply to contractors or sub-contractors under contracts made prior to the passage of the act, or to employees of charitable institutions.

If this were an act regulating the hours of labor and the amount of wages to be paid between individuals or private corporations and their employees, it would be, in my opinion, unconstitutional, as taking property without due compensation and without due process of law. It is not a mere declaration that, in the absence of special contract to the contrary, eight hours shall be a day's work, but it prohibits the making of any contract for a different number of hours' work. I am of opinion that it is not in the power of the Legislature to abridge or extinguish the right of parties to fix, by mutual consent, the number of hours that shall constitute a day's work, or the wages that shall be paid, or to prohibit or make void the agreements of the parties themselves in the premises, except where the health, safety or morals of the community are concerned, which justifies the enactment of police regulations, as in the case of restricting and defining the hours of employment of women and children (Commonwealth v. Hamilton Manufacturing Co., 120 Mass. 383), or of persons working in an unhealthy employment (Holden v. Hardy, 169 U. S. 366).

The critical provisions of the statute before me are those made applicable only to laborers upon public works, either of the Commonwealth or counties, or of cities and towns which have accepted the provisions of R. L., c. 106, § 20. So much of the statute as applies to cities and towns which have accepted the act last cited is to my mind plainly unconstitutional, as upon reasons expressed in the opinion of the Attorney-General of April 24, 1901. The chapter of Revised Laws cited merely provides what shall be a legal day's work, in the absence of an agreement by the parties to select, by mutual consent, some other standard or measure of service, analogous, in principle, to that of another statute fixing six per cent. as the legal rate of interest. See R. L., c. 73, § 3. The proposed enactment, on the other hand, provides that no laborer, workman or mechanic engaged upon any works which are . or are intended to be the property of such city or town shall be permitted or required to work more than eight hours in any one day. It seems needless to specifically call attention to that which is obvious, viz., that by accepting the former eight-hour law, contained in the section of the Revised Laws above quoted, such cities and towns have not accepted, and do not accept, the provisions of this new enactment, even if it be assumed that they could have legally and in advance bound themselves to such an obligation.

The Attorney-General, in the opinion above referred to, assumed a distinction between a county and a municipal corporation, considering the former as a mere political subdivision of the Commonwealth, and, as such, having no private right in its own property, such as is possessed by municipalities. No reason is given for the distinction, and it appears to have been made rather by way of illustration in argument than as a formal adjudication; and the contrary has since been expressly held, in a well-considered decision by the Supreme Court of Indiana, where the legal status of a county was directly, rather than incidentally, adjudicated. Street v. Varney Electrical Supply Co., 66 N. E. 895. I am therefore of opinion that, so far as this bill applies to counties, it is unconstitutional, for the reasons set forth in, and essential to, the conclusions in the above-cited opinion of the Attorney-General.

So far as the provisions of the new act relate to the Commonwealth, it is obvious that, beyond the objections that might well be made to a prescribed uniform wage for incompetent as well as competent employees, the bill, if approved, will result in a great increase of cost to the Commonwealth for all its public works; because it would seem that no contractor would bid for such work, in which unskilled labor is to be employed, except at figures predicated upon the highest rate of wages that might be current during the performance of the contract. There are decisions that such a regulation by the Commonwealth as to its own public works is unconstitutional. See Ex Parte Kuback, 85 Cal. 274; State v. Norton, 5 Ohio N. P. 183; People v. Coler, 166 N. Y. 1. But I am, nevertheless, of opinion that the Commonwealth may constitutionally establish such a rule for itself as it may choose; for it would be unavailing for any contractor or any employee to complain that his freedom of contract is abridged by such an act, for he need not work in behalf of or for the Commonwealth unless he wishes to; and it is open to the Commonwealth to prescribe that all persons who do work for it, either directly or indirectly, shall be employed upon such terms as it may require.

There may be constitutional objection, but I do not think it conclusive to such a rule, made by the Commonwealth as principal, as shall require that all its agents shall pay their employees a particular or arbitrary price, greater than that which others of like capacity could earn for like service in an open market, and shall require them to work only a certain number of hours; for this, in effect, may be held to require the expenditure of money, raised by taxation, for the benefit of a special and preferred class of persons called laborers, workmen and mechanics. It is not wholly clear how far the Legislature may go in paying gratuities from the public treasury to any class of its citizens, whether directly and avowedly, or through the means of paying them a high price for short hours of labor; but this question must be largely determined by the discretion of the Legislature itself. See Opinion of the Justices, 175 Mass. 599.

It does not lie within my proper province to discuss the policy of the legislation, but I deem it not wholly inappropriate to suggest, as sustaining the reason of my opinion upon the legal aspects of the question, the axiomatic principle that citizens who must, through taxes imposed upon them, pay for public works, are entitled to have such work done under such conditions of economy as they could themselves adopt in their own enterprises, through the employment of labor during as many hours in the day, and for as low wages, as the legitimate conditions of business might permit. The excess which is paid on account of short days and high wages, fixed without discrimination as to excellence of work, can differ but little in principle from a donation exacted from the tax payer and bestowed upon the laborer.

It is to be noted that the act distinguishes between employees upon public works in general and those who are in the service of charitable institutions. If the doctrine be sound, that the Commonwealth may make whatever rule it sees fit for the employment of labor upon its own works, I think it may make any discrimination as to employees, however arbitrary it may be. While citizens are entitled to the protection of equal laws, they are not equally entitled to be employed by the State, nor are they absolutely entitled to be employed upon equal terms. The Commonwealth, as proprietor, in making rules for its agents to follow, may exercise its own discretion, if prompted by the public welfare, even at the expense of its own interest, for the incidental benefit of some selected favorite. Therefore, though this discrimination against employees of charitable institutions may be ground for serious objection, in reason, it is, I think, nevertheless constitutional.

So far as this act applies to hours of labor in public works of the Commonwealth, it is similar to the act of Congress of Aug. 1, 1892 (27 U. S. Sts. at Large, 340). The validity of this act, so far as I can learn, has not yet been tested in the courts. The earlier United States statute (15 U. S. Sts. at Large, 77), which provided simply that, in the absence of a special contract, eight hours should constitute a day's work, was held to be valid, as merely prescribing a uniform rule to be followed by those agents when there was no reason why a different length of day should be contracted for.

I am, with great respect, Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Pilots of Boston Harbor — Pilot Commissioners — Order prescribing Specific Channel.

Under the provisions of R. L., c. 67, § 2, and in the absence of regulations to that effect imposed by the Congress of the United States, the Pilot Commissioners have no authority to require that, when in charge of heavy vessels, pilots shall enter and leave the port of Boston by a specific channel.

JULY 8, 1903.

Messrs. John C. Ross and Justus A. Bailey, Pilot Commissioners.

Gentlemen: — In your letter of July 2, you state that you have been requested by the United States Engineer to order Boston pilots to enter and leave the port, when in charge of large, deep vessels, by the new Broad Sound channel, and you require my opinion whether you have authority to issue such orders.

Section 4235 of the Revised Statutes of the United States provides:—

Until further provision is made by Congress, all pilots in the bays, inlets, rivers, harbors, and ports of the United States, shall continue to be regulated in conformity with the existing laws of the states respectively wherein such pilots may be, or with such laws as the states may respectively enact for the purpose.

R. L., c. 67, § 2, provides that the Pilot Commissioners shall cause the laws and regulations for pilotage within the harbor of Boston to be duly observed and executed.

The regulations for pilotage are found in St. 1862, c. 176, at the end of the chapter. These regulations do not provide for any determination by the Pilot Commissioners through which channel or channels vessels shall be taken, and I am not informed in your letter that the regulations have ever been altered in that respect.

Therefore, I am of opinion that you have no authority, of your own motion, to require pilots to take one channel, rather than another. If, however, the proper authorities of the United States government order that under certain circumstances vessels must pass out and in through Broad Sound channel while the main ship channel is being repaired, and communicate such order to you, as the head of the pilots of Boston harbor, you should transmit the order to the pilots. The failure by any pilot to obey the order would be ground for his suspension, in accordance with R. L., c. 67, § 2.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Pauper Law — Settled Pauper — Liability for Support.

Where a pauper inmate of a State institution has a settlement in any city or town in this Commonwealth, such city or town is liable to the Commonwealth for his support, notwithstanding the fact that there may be kindred or other persons who are bound by law and are of sufficient ability to defray the expense incurred therefor.

JULY 18, 1908.

J. F. LEWIS, M.D., Superintendent, State Adult Poor.

Dear Sir: — In your letter of May 4 you state that in certain cases the overseers of the poor of cities and towns within the Commonwealth acknowledge the settlement of pauper inmates of State institutions to be in such cities and towns, but deny their liability for the support of such persons, for the reason that they allege that there are relatives or kindred bound by law to support the pauper, who are of sufficient ability so to do.

R. L., c. 85, § 20, is as follows:—

A city or town in which an inmate of the state hospital is found to have a legal settlement shall be liable to the commonwealth for his support in like manner as one town is liable to another in like cases; and in such case, the state board of charity shall adopt such measures relative to notice, removal of a pauper and recovery of expenses as are prescribed for towns in like cases.

Section 21 provides that:—

The kindred who are liable by law to towns for expenses in supporting such paupers shall in like manner be liable to the commonwealth for any expense incurred for such paupers; and the state board of charity may adopt the same measures and institute like proceedings for the recovery of such expenses from the kindred so liable as are prescribed for towns in like cases.

I am of opinion that where a pauper, an inmate of a State institution, has a settlement in any city or town within this Commonwealth, such city or town is liable for his support, notwithstanding the fact that there may be some person or persons who are bound by law and who are able to defray the expense incurred by the Commonwealth.

It is true that under the provisions of section 21, above quoted, the Commonwealth has an alternative remedy against the kindred of a pauper, should they be in a position to aid in his support; but the liability for the maintenance of settled paupers who are inmates of State institutions is primarily imposed upon the cities and towns in which such paupers have settlements; and it can hardly be maintained that a city or town could successfully defend a claim brought by the Commonwealth under the provisions of R. L., c. 85, § 20, upon the ground that the kindred of the pauper for whose support the action was brought were also liable.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Trading Stamp — Definite Article — Exchange.

A trading stamp company may, under St. 1903, c. 386, issue trading stamps to merchants, for delivery to their customers, upon condition that a certain number of such stamps may be exchanged by the holder thereof for a definite and specified article, on inspection at the store of such company; and the customer, after receiving the article specified, may further exchange it for any other article of equal value exhibited at such store, without violating the provisions of such statute.

JULY 21, 1908.

RUFUS R. WADE, Esq., Chief of the Massachusetts District Police.

Dear Sir: — St. 1903, c. 386, provides that no person, firm or corporation shall, in connection with the sale of any merchandise, deliver trading stamps or similar devices, to be exchanged for any indefinite or undescribed article, the nature and value of which are not stated, or to be exchanged for any article not distinctly bargained for at the time when such trading stamps or other devices were delivered. You ask my opinion as to whether the following transaction is prohibited by this law: —

A trading stamp company issues to merchants stamps to be delivered to their customers, upon condition that a certain number of stamps may be exchanged by any customer for a rocking chair valued at $4, similar to other rocking chairs on inspection at the company's store. When the stamps are delivered to the customer, it is agreed between the merchant and the customer that in exchange for a certain number of them the customer may receive a rocking chair valued at $4, similar to other rocking chairs on inspection at the company's store. It is further provided that if, after receiving the rocking chair in exchange for the stamps, the customer desires to exchange the chair for some other article in the store which is valued at the same price, he may do so.

In my opinion, this transaction is not a violation of the above statute.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

State Inspector and Assayer of Liquors — Certificate — Evidence — State Board of Health.

The provision of R. L., c. 100, § 67, which made the certificate of the State inspector and assayer of liquors prima facte evidence of the composition and quality of liquors examined by him, is not affected as to the competency of such certificate as evidence by the fact that, under St. 1902, c. 110, the office of State inspector and assayer of liquors was abolished, and the powers and duties of such officer were transferred to the State Board of Health.

JULY 22, 1903.

SAMUEL W. ABBOTT, M.D., Secretary, State Board of Health.

DEAR SIR: - You inquire in your letter of July 14 as to the effect of St. 1902, c. 110, upon R. L., c. 100, §§ 67 and 68, particularly with regard to the provision contained in R. L., c. 100, § 67, that the statement of the inspector and assayer of liquors with regard to the percentage of alcohol found by him in samples of liquors submitted to him shall be prima facie evidence of the composition and quality of the liquors to which it relates. tions in chapter 100 of the Revised Laws to which you refer established the duties of the State inspector and assayer of liquors, among which was the duty to "inspect and analyze all liquors sent to him by the licensing board of any city, the selectmen of any town, or by police officers or other officers who are authorized by law to make seizures of liquors." The result of his examination and analysis was to be embodied in a certificate signed by him "of the percentage of alcohol by volume at sixty degrees Fahrenheit which such samples of liquors contain." The section further provides that such statement shall be prima facie evidence of the composition and quality of the liquors to which it relates.

St. 1902, c. 110, is entitled "An Act to transfer the powers and duties of the inspector and assayer of liquors to the state board of health," and is as follows:—

SECTION 1. The office of inspector and assayer of liquors is hereby abolished.

SECTION 2. The powers and duties heretofore conferred and imposed on the inspector and assayer of liquors are hereby conferred and imposed on the state board of health.

The obvious purpose of this statute was to transfer to the State Board of Health the powers and duties of the inspector and assayer of liquors, one of which was to examine samples of liquors seized by the police authorities, and to prepare a certificate setting forth the results of his examination, which should be prima facie evidence of the composition of the liquors analyzed.

I have no hesitation in advising you that the weight of such certificate as evidence remains unaffected by the enactment of St. 1902, c. 110.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

- High School Length of Course of Study Tuition Payment by Town.
- The effect of the provision in R. L., c. 42, § 2, that in a high school established thereunder "one or more courses of study, at least four years in length, shall be maintained," is to fix a minimum and not a maximum length for such course, and, in the discretion of the school committee, the course of study thereat may be made to exceed four years in length.
- Under R. L., c. 42, § 3, providing that towns relieved of the duty to maintain a high school of their own shall pay the expenses of tuition of residents therein who attend high schools in other towns, a pupil residing in a town which does not maintain a high school, and attending a high school elsewhere, who fails to graduate in due course, may be allowed a reasonable time in excess of that prescribed for the completion of such course, or such pupil, if graduated in due course, may pursue an additional or post-graduate course for the purpose of securing admission to a State normal school, technical school or college, provided such additional course includes only studies required by law to be taught in high schools.
- On the other hand, a pupil resident in a town in which no high school is maintained, and attending a high school in another town, who pursues an additional or post-graduate course which includes studies not required to be taught in high schools of corresponding grade, cannot be reimbursed by the town of his residence for the expense of tuition incurred in taking such course.

Aug. 17, 1903.

C. B. TILLINGHAST, Esq., Acting Secretary, State Board of Education.

DEAR SIR: — You require my opinion upon certain questions relating to the construction of R. L., c. 42, § 3, as amended by St. 1902, c. 433, as follows:—

- "1. Does the law contemplate a regular four years' course in the high school, and no more?
- "2. If a student so attending in some other town or city wishes to take a post-graduate course for a year, more or less, or if a student fails to graduate at the end of the four years' course, and wishes to attend longer, is the town liable in either case for the tuition in excess of the four years' course?"
- R. L., c. 42, § 3, which, so far as it is material to the present inquiry, is not affected by the amendment enacted in St. 1902, c. 433, provides that:—

A town of less than five hundred families or householders in which a public high school or a public school of corresponding grade is not maintained shall pay for the tuition of any child who resides in said town and who, with the previous approval of the school committee of his town, attends the high school of another city or town. If such town neglects or refuses to pay for such tuition, it shall be liable therefor to the parent or guardian of a child who has been furnished with such tuition if the parent or guardian has paid for the same, and otherwise to the city or town furnishing the same, in an action of contract. If the school committee of a town in which a public high school or public school of corresponding grade is not maintained refuses, upon the completion by a pupil resident therein of the course of study provided by it, to approve his attendance in the high school of some other city or town, which he, in the opinion of the superintendent of schools of the town in which he is resident is qualified to enter, the town shall be liable in an action of contract for his tuition. A town whose valuation does not exceed five hundred thousand dollars shall be entitled to receive from the treasury of the commonwealth all necessary amounts which have been actually expended for high school tuition under the provisions of this section, if such expenditure shall be certified under oath to the board of education, by its school committee within thirty days after the date of such expenditure, and such high school shall have been approved by the board of education.

Section 2 provides in part that every city and town containing, according to the latest census, five hundred families or householders, shall, and any other town may, maintain a high school, in which instruction shall be given in certain studies prescribed by section one of the same chapter, and in such additional subjects as may be required for the general purpose of preparing pupils for admission to State normal schools, technical schools and colleges. The section contains the further provision that "one or more courses of study, at least four years in length, shall be maintained in said high school."

Upon consideration of the provisions of law above referred to, I am of opinion that the statute is not to be construed to limit the duration of any course of study to a period of four years. The force and effect of the words "at least four years in length," as used in section 2, is to establish a minimum and not a maximum length for such courses; and, in the discretion of the school committee of a town in which a high school is situated, the courses of study thereat may exceed four years in length.

In the case of a pupil attending a high school maintained by a town other than that in which he resides, who fails to graduate in due course, I am of opinion that a reasonable time in excess of that prescribed may be allowed for the completion of the course, subject always to the decision of the competent authorities that such additional attendance will be of advantage to the pupil himself. If the pupil himself elects to continue his studies beyond the regular and fixed course of study at the school which he attends, by taking a "post-graduate" course, so called, the question is one of more difficulty. If it be assumed that by post-graduate course is meant a course of study additional to and following upon the usual and regular course given at such high school, and including studies which are not required to be taught in high schools or schools of corresponding grade, I am of opinion that the town in which such pupil resides, and in which no high school is maintained, may not be charged with the expense so incurred, since the course of study chosen is not one which the town is obliged by law to furnish. If, on the other hand, the additional course includes only such studies as are by law required to be maintained in high schools, and is chosen by the pupil for the purpose of securing admission to a State normal school, technical school or college, and for the reason that the regular course of study maintained at such school is not sufficient in and of itself to secure the desired result, the expense incurred for such additional attendance constitutes in my opinion a proper charge against the town in which such pupil has his residence.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Metropolitan Park Commission — Police Jurisdiction — Parks — Local Police — Right of Entry.

The authority of the Metropolitan Park Commission with regard to police regulation of public open spaces does not differ from that exercised by such commission over parkways and boulevards; and the entrance thereon of local police authorities, as such, must be limited to the pursuit and apprehension of persons who have violated some statute, ordinance or regulation within their jurisdiction, and have sought refuge upon land controlled by such commission.

AUG. 21, 1903.

JOHN WOODBURY, Esq., Secretary, Metropolitan Park Commission.

DEAR SIR: — You inquire in your communication of August 13 as to the extent of the authority of the police appointed by a city or town within the limits of land taken for public open spaces under St. 1893, c. 407, the act by which your commission was created and established.

The legislation relating to this question was cited and elaborately discussed in an opinion addressed to the Metropolitan Park Commission under date of Aug. 7, 1902, in which I advised the commission that the authority of the local police to enter upon roadways and boulevards exclusively controlled by the Metropolitan Park Commission is confined to the pursuit and apprehension of persons who have committed a breach of any statute, ordinance or regulation within the limits of an adjacent city or town, and have taken refuge upon such roadways or boulevards; and that they have no authority to enter upon roadways or boulevards subject to the jurisdiction of the commission for the general purpose of maintaining the public peace and order thereon.

The only ground for believing that a distinction may be made between the authority which the commission may exercise over public open spaces acquired under the provisions of St. 1893, c. 407, to which your present inquiry is directed, and the authority of the commission over roadways and boulevards, as defined in the opinion above referred to, is found in the language of St. 1894, c. 288, § 3, which is in part as follows:—

In furtherance of the powers herein granted, said board may appoint clerks, police and such other employees as it may from time to time find necessary for the purposes of this act, remove the same at pleasure, and make rules and regulations for the government and use of the roadways or boulevards under its care, breaches whereof shall be breaches of the peace, punishable as such in any court having jurisdiction of the same; and in addition said board shall have the same rights and powers over and in regard to the roadways or boulevards taken and constructed hereunder as are or may be vested in them in regard to other open spaces by said chapter four hundred and seven and acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto, and shall also have such rights and powers in regard to the same as, in general, counties, cities and towns have over public ways under their control.

The concluding provision of the above-quoted statute, by which the commission is given all the rights and powers with regard to parkways and boulevards that the local authorities have over public ways subject to their control, does indeed confer upon the commission rights and powers over such ways which are not included in the authority granted to the commission in dealing with public open spaces or reservations; but I am of opinion that the rights and powers so conferred are to be construed as relating rather to the granting and use of street railway and other franchises and like matters, which are peculiar to the control and use of public ways, than to matters of police jurisdiction over such ways.

It follows, therefore, that the authority of the Metropolitan Park Commission with regard to police regulation of public open spaces does not differ from that which they have over parkways and boulevards, as defined in the opinion of last year, already referred to; and that the entrance of the local police authorities, as such, in the discharge of their duties, upon such open spaces must be solely for the purpose of pursuing and apprehending persons who have violated some statute, ordinance or regulation within their jurisdiction, and have sought refuge upon lands controlled by your commission.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Commonwealth — Actions by Agents or Representatives — Entry Fee.

In all cases where proceedings are instituted by persons appearing and acting as duly authorized agents or representatives of, and for the establishment or protection of any right or interest in the Commonwealth, the Commonwealth is the plaintiff in such action, within the meaning of R. L., c. 204, § 6, par. 10, and no entry fee is chargeable therefor.

SEPT. 17, 1903.

JOHN NOBLE, Esq., Clerk Supreme Judicial Court, Suffolk County.

DEAR SIR: — Your letter under date of Sept. 15, 1908, in relation to the payment of entry fees by the Commonwealth, is before me. I appreciate the importance of the question in its relation to your duties as clerk, and realize that, upon your request, I ought to advise you by formal opinion of the reasons for holding that the entry fees in the cases under consideration are not chargeable against the Commonwealth.

It is provided by R. L, c. 204, § 6, par. 10, that "in civil actions in which the Commonwealth or a county is the plaintiff, no entry fee shall be paid."

No question, I take it, can arise where the Commonwealth is in name as well as in fact the plaintiff or petitioner. The only field of question I assume to be where the party plaintiff is a commission or officer of the Commonwealth, suing as such. Obviously, where commissioners or officers have been created by law and intrusted with the care and enforcement of particular and specific rights of the Commonwealth, action must be taken exclusively by such officer or commission for and in behalf of the Commonwealth: and in order to show such authority to sue, such officer or commission must be named with the specification of his representative capacity. A proceeding for relief, remedy, redress or restraint for and in behalf of the Commonwealth, and brought in the name of those agents to whom the subject-matter of the proceeding has been expressly delegated by law, must, in my opinion, be taken to be, under the provisions of the section of the statute above referred to, a civil action, in which the Commonwealth is the plaintiff. The agent, except in his purely representative capacity, has no interest in or concern with the proceeding or its results; he is only the instrument by which the Commonwealth acts.

These conclusions, I think, must follow upon a consideration of the provisions of the statute unaided by judicial instruction. I believe, however, that the conclusion is positively sustained and confirmed by the opinion of the court in Dewey v. Garvey, 130 Mass. 86, it being there held that a State lunatic hospital, with relation to a contract, is to be taken to be "the substitute or representative of the Commonwealth itself, and the party in interest must necessarily be the Commonwealth."

The case of Flagg v. Bradford, 181 Mass. 315, is even more decisive, to my mind. There the action was in contract against Edward S. Bradford, as Treasurer and Receiver-General of the Commonwealth. The court holds (p. 316) that the action is in substance and effect an action against the Commonwealth, "and, although nominally against the defendant, it seems to us plain that the action is really against the Commonwealth."

I am, therefore, of opinion that in all cases where proceedings are instituted by persons appearing and acting solely as representatives or agents, with due authority, for the Commonwealth, and asserting or affirming a right or interest of the Commonwealth, no entry fee is properly chargeable in any of our courts.

. Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

 $Appropriation - Special\ Committee - Expenses - Expert\ Advice.$

The committee appointed by the Governor under the provisions of Res. 1903, c. 86, to investigate and report upon the legislation needed to authorize the making of public improvements under a more extensive exercise of the right of eminent domain than is now permitted by the constitution and laws of the Commonwealth, is not authorized to incur expense for expert advice, to be paid for outside the appropriation for "clerk hire, printing and postage," made by such resolve.

To His Excellency John L. Bates, Governor. SEPT. 18, 1903.

Sir: — Your Excellency transmits to me a letter from Mr. Leslie C. Wead, under date of September 10, which I return herewith, referring to the provisions of chapter 86 of the Resolves of 1903, and inquiring whether the committee, of which he is one, appointed under that resolve, has authority to employ expert advice to be paid for outside of the one thousand dollar allowance for clerical assistance.

The resolve is as follows: -

Resolved, That the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, be authorized and requested to appoint, not later than the thirtieth day of June in the year nineteen hundred and three, a committee to consist of three or more suitable persons, one of whom he shall designate as chairman, to investigate and report upon the legislation needed to enable the general court, by special acts, subject to other provisions of the constitution, to authorize any city, town or state commission to take in fee, to purchase, or otherwise to acquire for public purposes and in connection with any given public work, all or any part of the land within certain defined limits, and after appropriating for such public work so much of the land so taken as is needed therefor to sell or lease the remainder. The committee may employ such assistance as may be necessary, shall give a hearing to all persons desiring to be heard upon the subject, and shall make a report of their doings, with such recommendations as they may deem proper, to the next general court. The committee may expend in the performance of its duties such sum for clerk hire, printing and postage, not exceeding one thousand dollars, as the governor and council may determine, to be paid out of the treasury of the Commonwealth. The powers of the committee shall terminate on the making of their report, and they shall annex to their report the draft of a bill in accordance with such recommendations, if any, as they may make.

I am of the opinion that the true construction of the resolve does not permit such employment as is contemplated by the inquiry. No expenditure by the committee can be permitted except such as is expressly authorized by the terms of the act, or arises by necessary implication therefrom, and no expenditure can be authorized by implication unless such be necessary to insure the declared purpose of the act.

I do not think that under this rule of construction the expenditure would be authorized, for I am of the opinion that the Legislature contemplated the appointment upon the committee of gentlemen who had peculiar knowledge of the conditions and issues with which they were to deal, and intended to rely upon their judgment and opinion rather than upon advice of others which, for a compensation, they might secure; and Your Excellency has appointed gentlemen of such character, experience and sagacity as to make their opinions of the highest value.

The use of the phrase "may employ such assistance as may be necessary" might possibly suggest an authority for the employment of some forms of necessary assistance; but that which is suggested by the inquiry of Mr. Wead does not appear to me to fall within the range of the assistance contemplated. I rather incline to the opinion that the phrase "may employ such assistance as may be necessary" is to be taken in connection with the later provision for clerical assistance, the expense for which is expressly limited. In other words, I think the true intent of the resolve, considering all its provisions, is that the expenditures authorized to be made are limited to the sum of one thousand dollars; and I am confirmed in this view by the use of the phrase "The committee may expend in the performance of its duties such sum for clerk hire," etc., to be paid out of the treasury of the Commonwealth.

I would add further that I think the provision that "the committee may employ such assistance as may be necessary" must be held to relate to that assistance incidental to the mere administrative detail of the work of the committee itself.

The duties of the committee are in some respects analogous to those of a court. They are charged with the duty of making an inquiry by conducting hearings; they are to form and report such opinions as their own judgment may approve or suggest, or may be developed from the hearing of testimony; and I think it quite clear that no court would seek to have its responsible judgment instructed by opinions for which it would make payment.

It may be that the committee might be aided in the prosecution of their work by reports made and opinions rendered to them by persons of peculiar knowledge of the subject under investigation; but I think that the Legislature expected that such opinions would be presented in the form of testimony of persons interested in the inquiry, and that thus the committee would have the benefit of such opinions, and the opportunity of passing upon their value before reaching their conclusions.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Civil Service — Police Officer of the City of Cambridge — Promotion.

The city of Cambridge is not exempted by its charter (St. 1891, c. 364, as amended by St. 1896, c. 173, and St. 1902, c. 357) from the operation of the civil service law and rules, and promotion made thereunder in the police department of such city must be accomplished subject to the established regulations of the Civil Service Commission.

Ост. 1, 1903.

Hon. CHARLES H. PORTER, Chairman, Civil Service Commission.

DEAR SIR: — In your letter received September 8 you state that the Hon. John H. H. McNamee, mayor of Cambridge, in the course of making certain changes in the police force of that city has promoted a policeman from the grade of patrolman to that of sergeant, without notifying your Board; and you request my opinion whether promotions in the police force of Cambridge are governed by the civil service rules.

The civil service law is to be found in chapter 19 of the Revised Laws, and in your rules. Section 7 of the law provides that the Civil Service Commission shall include in their rules provisions for promotions, if practicable, on a basis of ascertained merit in the examinations and seniority of service. Section 9 provides that such rules shall apply to members of the police and fire departments of cities; and by Rule VII. your Board classified the members of the police force in Class 3 (c) of Schedule B "the regular and reserve forces of, and all persons doing permanent police duty in and for and paid by, any city of the Commonwealth, except the city of Boston."

Section 19 of the law provides: -

The name and residence of every person, except laborers, appointed to, promoted or employed in a position coming within the rules governing the civil service, the designation of such position and the rejection or discharge of every such person, shall forthwith be reported to the commissioners by the officer making such appointment, promotion, rejection or discharge, or providing such employment.

Under this law your Board made the following rules: -

RULE XXXVI. Every officer having the power of appointment to any position in the first division shall, within ten days, give notice in writing to the commissioners of the name and place of residence of any person appointed and employed in such position, of the rejection of any such person during or after promotion, and of the transfer, promotion, resignation or removal, discharge or death, of any person serving under him, with the dates thereof.

RULE XL., Cl. 3. Promotions in Class 3 of Schedule B shall, so far as practicable, be by successive grades and by competitive or non-competitive examination, as the commissioners may determine: provided, however, that no special, supernumerary, substitute, reserve or temporary police officer, under whatever designation (unless a permanent reserve force in any city is established by act of the legislature), shall be promoted to the regular or permanent force, or assigned to permanent duty, except after competition with all applicants for said force.

Whether promotion of the patrolman in question, by competitive or non-competitive examination, was practicable or not, was a question of fact determinable not by the mayor, but by your commission alone. But aside from this issue, upon which it may well be contended that the Honorable Mayor has ignored the law, he was certainly, in my opinion, required to notify your commission of the promotion, however made, unless the city of Cambridge is exempt by its charter from the application of the civil service law and rules.

The provisions in the Cambridge charter (St. 1891, c. 364, as amended by St. 1896, c. 173, and St. 1902, c. 357) which may apply to the situation are the following:—

SECTION 8. He [the mayor] shall at all times have the control and direction of the police force.

SECTION 10. The mayor, after due hearing, may, with the approval of a majority of the board of aldermen, remove . . . any member of the police force.

SECTION 28. The board of aldermen shall, from time to time, fix the number and compensation of the members of the police force, and establish general regulations for its government.

The control of the police force to be exercised by the mayor, as contemplated by the provisions of the city charter, must be, in my opinion, confined in its application to the police force as created and existing under the limitations of the general laws. Such control must be, I think, an administrative and not a creative authority. A like construction must also, in my opinion, be put upon section 28 of the city charter above referred to. That act cannot, I think, be construed as conferring upon the board of aldermen any power, to the exclusion of the authority of your commission, by virtue of which the appointment or qualification of an officer is to be determined. The function of the board of aldermen in this respect, as declared by the charter, is, in my opinion, also an administrative one. I find, therefore, in these provisions of the charter, above cited, nothing which is inconsistent with the application of the civil service law to the police force of Cambridge. Power to make general regulations for the government of officials is not inconsistent with the specific power given to the commission to apply their tests to the persons who are to become members of the police force, or, if practicable, to those who are to be promoted therein. In other words, the qualification of membership of the police force of the city of Cambridge is subject to the established regulation of your commission.

I therefore conclude, and have the honor to advise you, that upon the facts stated, the Hon. John H. McNamee, mayor of Cambridge, has failed to comply with a distinct and obligatory requirement of law.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Co-operative Bank — Loan — Security — Second Mortgage.

The purpose of R. L., c. 114, § 14, providing that every loan made by a co-operative savings bank shall be secured by a mortgage of real estate situated within the Commonwealth, and unencumbered by any mortgage or lien "other than such as may be held by the bank making the loan," was to secure the result that property mortgaged to a co-operative savings bank should not be subjected to any liens or mortgages other than those held by the bank itself; and such statute does not forbid a second mortgage upon property upon which the same bank holds a first mortgage, provided that such property is not thereby encumbered to an amount exceeding its real value.

Ост. 15, 1908.

DEAR SIR: — Your letter of October 10 requires my opinion upon the legality of a transaction which you state to be as follows: "A party takes out 25 shares in a co-operative bank, pledging the same and securing a loan on mortgage of real estate for $5,000, after which another party takes out 4 shares in the same bank, and gives a second mortgage on the same property for $200,

Hon. WARREN E. LOCKE, Chairman, Board of Savings Banks Commissioners.

pledging the 4 shares for the same. Separate notes are given for the respective amounts."

The only question affecting the legality of the transaction as above described is whether the provision in R. L., c. 114, § 14, that every loan shall be secured by a mortgage of real estate situated in the Commonwealth and unencumbered by any mortgage or lien "other than such as may be held by the bank making the loan," is to be construed as requiring that the only mortgage existing upon the real estate so designated shall be that which secures the particular loan in question, or as permitting several independent loans by the same bank to be secured by independent mortgages upon such real estate.

I am of opinion that it was the intent of the statute to permit different mortgages upon the same real estate as security for different loans, provided that the directors are satisfied that the property is not subjected to mortgages exceeding in amount its real value as ascertained by them.

In St. 1877, c. 224, § 8, it was provided that loans by co-operative savings banks should be secured by a mortgage upon real estate. By St. 1881, c. 271, § 1, this act was amended so as to require that the mortgage should be a first mortgage; and this provision was substantially re-enacted in P. S, c. 117, § 13. The provision was enacted in its present form in St. 1894, c. 342. The evident intention of these statutes was to secure the result that property mortgaged to co-operative savings banks should not be encumbered by any liens or mortgages other than those held by the bank itself.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Danvers Insane Hospital — Trustees — Water Supply — Contract with Town — New Building.

Under a contract in force between the Commonwealth and the town of Danvers, by which it is agreed that the Commonwealth may take, free of charge, water from the water supply of the town for the use of the Danvers Insane Hospital, "and of all buildings that at any time may be owned by the State on the grounds; and also for use on the grounds themselves, as now laid out, for any purpose," the Commonwealth may, without payment, take water from the town supply for use in and for a building upon land acquired subsequent to the making of such contract, but not for any independent use upon the grounds so acquired.

OCT. 22, 1908.

Trustees of the Danvers Insane Hospital.

Gentlemen: — You desire my opinion upon the following question: under a duly authorized contract, which is in force between the town of Danvers and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the Commonwealth is entitled to use the town water for the Danvers Insane Hospital free of charge, and, at its own expense, for pipes to take water for such purpose directly from the town pipes.

It appears that the trustees are erecting a new hospital building upon land which they have recently purchased adjoining the land which the Commonwealth owned for the hospital at the time when the contract was executed. The question is, whether the Commonwealth has the right, under the above-mentioned contract, to use the town water for its new building free of charge.

The material provision of the contract is as follows: —

The town of Danvers shall . . . perpetually keep a constant and ample supply of water in the reservoir, and permit the State to take therefrom, in any manner and at any time, all the water which the State through any of its authorized agents may desire or deem proper for the use of the hospital, and of all buildings that at any time may be owned by the State on the grounds; and also for use on the grounds themselves, as now laid out, for any purposes whatever. The State may at any time, at its own expense for pipes, take water for any purposes before named directly from the pipes to be laid by the town.

The important clauses are the following: -

All the water which the State through any of its authorized agents may desire or deem proper for the use (1) of the hospital, (2) and of all buildings that at any time may be owned by the State on the grounds; (3) and also for use on the grounds themselves, as now laid out, for any purposes whatever.

If this provision did not proceed beyond clause 1, the Common-wealth might undoubtedly take water for the use of an additional hospital building. The true intent of the words "the hospital," there being no expression to the contrary, must be the hospital as an institution, not the hospital as a specific existing building, which, at the date of the contract, is used for the hospital.

Clause 2, I think, amplifies the provision of clause 1 so as to allow the free use of the town water in all buildings that at any time may be owned by the State on the extensive grounds, whether they are buildings used for hospital purposes, or not. I do not think the intention of clause 2 is to restrict the meaning of clause 1 to such hospital buildings as may be later built upon grounds limited to those owned at the time of the contract. I am of opinion that the word "grounds" must be construed to mean any and all grounds owned at any time by the State, and connected with and used for hospital purposes.

Clause 3 also amplifies the provisions so as to allow the use of the town water not only for hospital purposes, but also for any use whatever on the grounds of the hospital "as now laid out," the latter words being used to distinguish between a use upon the grounds and a use for the hospital as such, and to guard against such future laying out of the extensive grounds as might require a great, and perhaps unlimited, quantity of water for outside and non-essential purposes, or against the watering of new grounds that might be acquired. Such outside use of water being obviously in the nature of a luxury, rather than a necessity, the contract restricted such use upon the grounds to the grounds as then laid out.

My conclusion is that the Commonwealth may take, without payment, water from the town supply for use in and for the new building, but not for independent use upon the new grounds, and I so advise you; though I realize that there is opportunity for argument that the intention may have been to apply clause 1 only to the hospital building, and that clause 2 was intended to restrict the right of the Commonwealth to buildings later erected on the grounds then owned, and that the right of the Commonwealth could not be extended to buildings, though a part of the hospital, but erected upon land later acquired. I hold, nevertheless, that the advice I submit is based upon the sounder and more tenable ground of construction.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Militia — Armory Commissioners — Erection of Boat-house for the Use of the Naval Reserve.

A boat-house, for the storage of boats and other equipments used by a company of the Naval Reserve, located in a city or town, is a part of the armory required to be furnished by such city or town for the use of the volunteer militia quartered therein, and may be erected under the provisions of R. L., c. 16, § 107, authorizing the Armory Commissioners to acquire land in any city or town within the limits of which two or more companies of militia are located, and to erect an armory thereon for the use of such militia.

Nov. 4, 1903.

GEORGE HOWLAND COX, Esq., State Armory Commissioner.

DEAR SIR: — You have submitted to me the following question: "In Springfield, which has a State armory, it is desired to erect a boat-house for Company H of the Naval Brigade, which will probably cost from $7,000 to $8,000, and the city would like to build this under the armory act. Of course they have a State armory, and this would be practically another armory, for the use of the Naval Militia in the summer season." You add that it seems to you that the law is broad enough to accomplish this.

Company H of the Naval Brigade of Springfield is a part of the militia of the Commonwealth, for which the law requires that adequate equipment and quarters shall be provided. R. L., c. 16, § 107, require that the Armory Commissioners shall acquire, in each city or town in which two or more companies of militia are located, suitable land, and erect thereon an armory for the companies and militia headquarters and detachments of the militia located in said city, together with necessary rooms for drills and care of state property.

Adequate buildings for the care and equipment, including boats and other property, of the Naval Brigade, together with necessary and appropriate rooms for drills, must be furnished under the law of the Commonwealth; and if the armory in Springfield, erected or in process of erection for the military companies of the militia, is not adaptable and cannot be adapted to the needs and requirements of the Naval Brigade, then another structure for that brigade must be provided, and may be well considered to be a part of the armory contemplated by the statute.

In an opinion given in reply to a question asked by the Adjutant-General on July 14, 1902, the Attorney-General held that the city of Springfield was under the duty of erecting a boat-house for the care of the boats and other paraphernalia used by the company of the Naval Reserve located in that city.

I am of opinion, therefore, that a boat-house, such as is suggested in the inquiry which you submit to me, is to be considered a part of the armory, and may properly be erected under the armory act.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Civil Service — Chief Clerk of the Board of Assessors for the Town of Brookline.

The office of chief clerk of the board of assessors for the town of Brookline is within the operation of the civil service law and rules, and the person chosen to fill such office must be chosen thereunder, notwithstanding the fact that such person is himself a member of the board of assessors, and employs a substitute to perform the duties of such office.

Nov. 19, 1903.

Hon. Charles H. Porter, Chairman, Civil Service Commission.

DEAR SIR:—I have your letter of October 6, requesting my opinion whether, upon the facts submitted, certain individuals in the service of the board of assessors for the town of Brookline are within the classification established by Civil Service Rule VII., Section 2. It appears that a member of the board of assessors for the town of Brookline was elected by that board to the office of assessors' chief clerk, the salary of which was, by appropriate action of the town, fixed at $1,500. He, in turn, employed a second individual to perform the clerical duties which the office demanded, paying him for his services the sum of $1,200. The person actually elected to the office of chief clerk is also in receipt of a salary of $1,500 as a member of the board of assessors.

Rule VII., Section 2, Schedule A, provides that: —

Schedule A shall include clerks, copyists, recorders, bookkeepers, inspectors, agents, almoners, visitors, stenographers, typewriters, messengers, and persons rendering service similar to that of any of the above-specified positions, in the service of the Commonwealth or of any city thereof, under whatever designation, whether such service is permanent or temporary, and whether the same is paid by time for work done, by the piece, or in any other manner.

I am of opinion that the office of chief clerk of the board of assessors for the town of Brookline is clearly within the operation of the civil service law and rules; and that the person chosen to fill such position must be chosen thereunder, notwithstanding the fact that he may also be a member of the board itself, for the reason that the two offices are entirely distinct, both as to duties and as to compensation.

The person actually performing the duties of chief clerk, on the other hand, must, in my opinion, be regarded as a private employee of the chief clerk, who is responsible for his conduct, and from whom he receives his compensation.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

School District — Joint Committee of School Committees — Certification of Salary of Superintendent of Schools.

In a school district organized under the provisions of R. L., c. 42, § 48, the joint committee of school committees of the several towns forming such district, which is thereby authorized to act as agent of such towns, may certify to the several town treasurers the proper proportions of the salary of the superintendent of schools, without securing the approval of any other local board or authority.

DEC. 2, 1903.

C. B. TILLINGHAST, Esq , Acting Secretary, State Board of Education.

DEAR SIR: — You desire to be advised whether, in case a school district is organized under the provisions of R. L., c. 42, § 43, the joint committee of school committees, which is authorized thereby to act as agent for each town in the union, may certify to the several town treasurers the salary of the superintendent of schools, without the approval of any local board.

R. L., c. 42, § 44, provides that:—

The school committees of such towns shall be a joint committee, which, for the purposes of such union, shall be the agents of each town therein.

... They shall choose, by ballot, a superintendent of schools, determine the relative amount of service to be performed by him in each town, fix his salary, apportion the amount thereof to be paid by the several towns and certify it to each town treasurer.

I am of opinion that the joint committee of school committees is authorized to certify to the town treasurer the salary of the superintendent without obtaining the approval of any local board. Within the scope of its authority, the joint committee becomes the agent of each town, and its acts are binding upon each town composing the union. See Freeman v. Bourne, 170 Mass. 289, 293. There can be no doubt, therefore, that the town committee of school committees, established under the provisions of R. L., c. 42, · § 43, may, as agent of the town, certify the proper proportion of the salary of the superintendent to the town treasurer of any town within the district without the intervention of any other local authority.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Women - Right to participate in Caucuses.

Under existing statutes, women are not entitled to participate in or to vote at the caucuses of the several political parties.

DEC. 7, 1903.

To His Excellency John L. Bates, Governor.

Sir: — In reply to your request for the opinion of the Attorney-General as to the right of women to vote in caucuses, I have the honor to say that in my opinion women have not that right.

It is clear that women have no inherent or constitutional right to vote, either in elections or in caucuses, consequently their rights are wholly derived from statutes.

There is no statute which expressly gives to them the right to vote in caucuses. R. L., c. 11, § 13, re-enacting St. 1898, c. 548, § 14, provides:—

Every female citizen having the qualifications of a male voter required by the preceding section may have her name entered upon the list of voters for school committee, and shall have the right to vote for members of the school committee upon complying with the requirements hereinafter set forth.

The right to vote, here expressly given, is without doubt the right to vote at elections. In fact, with the exception of St. 1881, c. 191, § 1, the earlier statutes (P. S., c. 6, § 3; St. 1884, c. 298, § 4; St. 1890, c. 423, § 5; St. 1892, c. 351, § 3; St. 1893, c. 417, § 14) use the word "elections."

The right to vote in caucuses, if given at all, is given by implication. Such an implication is not inconsistent with the statutes which provide regulations for the government of caucuses. R. L., c. 11, §§ 91, 92. See also §§ 67, 60, 44. Furthermore, in favor of such an implied right, it may be urged that the right to vote at elections requires, to make it effective, the right to vote in the caucuses; in other words, that the right to vote in the caucuses is an incident of the right to vote at elections.

There is, however, a statutory provision in R. L., c. 11, § 144, which tends to rebut this implication. It there appears that "women who are qualified to vote may sign nomination papers for candidates for the school committee." From this it may fairly be argued that, since the Legislature deemed it necessary to make a special provision to enable women to sign nomination papers, it would have been equally necessary to have made a special provision to enable them to vote in caucuses.

A further indication of the intention of the Legislature is to be found in the fact that the Legislature in 1901 was petitioned to enable women to participate in caucuses for school committee; that a bill was introduced amending St. 1898, c. 548, § 91, by changing the oath therein contained and by adding at the end of the section, "Women entitled to vote for school committee shall have the right to take part in any caucus, in which candidates for school committee or delegates to any convention at which candidates for school committee are to be selected, to the extent of participating in the selection of such candidates or delegates;" and that the committee reported "leave to withdraw," which report was accepted.

This action clearly indicates the opinion which the Legislature had of the St. 1898, c. 548, namely, that women had no right to vote in caucuses. It further shows that the Legislature did not intend to give such a right. As the same Legislature revised the laws, its intention is the important factor in the interpretation of R. L., c. 11.

These two considerations seem to me sufficient to rebut the implication of a right of women to vote in the caucuses.

I am, with great respect,

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Insurance — Fire Company — Foreign Corporation — Contract — Standard Policy.

A fire insurance company organized under the laws of another State, and not admitted to do business in this Commonwealth, may, without violating any of the provisions of R. L., c. 118, issue a policy differing in form from the standard policy of fire insurance established by such statute, if the contract of insurance is made and the policy delivered without the Commonwealth, and no person acts as agent or broker within the Commonwealth in negotiating the contract.

DEC. 16, 1908.

Hon. Frederick L. Cutting, Insurance Commissioner.

DEAR SIR: — In your letter of October 19 you state that a fire insurance company, organized under the laws of another State, and not admitted to do business in Massachusetts, issued on property in Massachusetts a policy which differed from the standard form prescribed by the Massachusetts law. The contract was made and the policy delivered outside of Massachusetts. It does not appear that any person acted as agent or broker within Massachusetts in negotiating the contract. You ask whether these facts will support a prosecution for violation of the Massachusetts laws.

The following sections of the insurance law (R. L., c. 118) are material:—

SECTION 60. No fire insurance company shall issue fire insurance policies on property in this commonwealth, other than those of the standard form herein set forth. . . .

SECTION 98. A person who assumes to act as an insurance agent or insurance broker without license therefor as herein provided, or who acts in any manner in the negotiation or transaction of unlawful insurance with a foreign insurance company not admitted to do business in this commonwealth, or who, as principal or agent, violates any provision of this chapter relative to the negotiation or effecting of contracts of insurance, shall be punished for each offence by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars.

SECTION 8. . . . it shall be unlawful for a company to make a contract of insurance upon or relative to any property or interests or lives in this commonwealth, or with any resident thereof, or for any person as insurance agent or insurance broker to make, negotiate, solicit or in any manner aid in the transaction of such insurance, except as authorized by the provisions of this chapter. . . .

The foreign company has not violated any of these laws, because its acts were done outside the jurisdiction. These penal laws have no extra territorial effect. See Sedgwick on Construction of Statutes, p. 64; Rorer on Interstate Law, pp. 209, 210; Johnson v. Mutual Life Ins. Co. of New York, 180 Mass. 407.

No agent or broker has taken part within the Commonwealth in negotiating or prosecuting the contract, therefore no conviction may be had, as in the cases of Hooper v. California, 155 U. S. 648; Nutting v. Massachusetts, 183 U. S. 553.

The owner of the property himself, while he has a right, under the Federal Constitution, to contract outside the State for insurance on his property (Allgeyer v. Louisiana, 165 U. S. 578), may be prohibited from contracting within the jurisdiction of Massachusetts with any foreign company which has not acquired the privilege of engaging in business therein, either in his own behalf or through an agent empowered to that end (Hooper v. California, 155 U. S. 648, 656); but the owner made this contract, as matter of fact, in another State. Accordingly, under the principles stated above, he has committed no offence against the laws of Massachusetts.

There is a further provision of the Massachusetts law which must be considered, viz.: the last clause of section 3,—"All contracts of insurance on property, lives or interests in this commonwealth shall be deemed to be made therein." If this statute means more than that the legality and construction of such contract shall be governed by the Massachusetts law, and attempts to take away a man's right to contract outside the State, it is unconstitutional. Allgeyer v. Louisiana, 165 U. S. 578.

The Legislature has no power to decide for the courts of Massachusetts that the contract of insurance in question was made in Massachusetts, when, under the law of the land, it was made in another State. If by a fiction it seeks to transfer the place of making the contract to Massachusetts, for the purpose of imposing a penalty for making it, it is a violation of the Massachusetts Declaration of Rights and of the 14th Amendment of the United States Constitution.

I am, therefore, of the opinion that, upon the facts stated, no prosecution for violation of the laws of this Commonwealth can be sustained.

Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Towns - Joint Caucuses - Acceptance of Statute.

In towns using official ballots, which at the State election, held on Nov. 3, 1908, voted to accept the provisions of St. 1908, c. 454, an act providing for joint caucuses of all political parties, as required by section 18, no further action is necessary to render such statute fully operative; the provision in section 2 that caucuses as established by the statute shall be held in towns using official ballots, "which towns at an annual meeting vote that primaries shall be held therein," being applicable only to cases where for any reason the statute was not accepted at the State election specified, in which event, the question of acceptance may hereafter be passed upon at an annual town meeting.

Sin: — I have the honor to reply to a communication from Your Excellency requiring my opinion upon the effect of the action of certain towns which, at the last State election, voted to accept the provisions of St. 1903, c. 454, entitled, "An Act to provide for joint caucuses or primaries of all political and municipal parties."

Section 18 of the statute above cited, which contains the enacting clause, is as follows:—

This act shall take effect in Boston upon its passage. In other cities and in towns using official ballots the question of its acceptance shall be submitted to the voters at the next annual state election and the act shall take effect as soon after its acceptance by a majority of the voters voting thereon as the provisions of law relative to nominations can be complied with.

Section 2 provides that: —

All caucuses of political and municipal parties in cities, and in towns using official ballots, which towns at an annual meeting vote that primaries shall be held therein, except caucuses to elect delegates to conventions held for the election of delegates to national conventions, and for the choice of ward committees after the change of ward lines, shall be held at the same time and place as primaries, and shall be conducted in general accordance with the provisions of law concerning the conduct of elections and the manner of voting thereat, except as otherwise provided herein.

Towns voting that primaries shall be held therein may, at a legal meeting called for the purpose, not less than one year after the date of the first primary held therein, revoke such action.

Clerks of towns which vote to hold primaries or to rescind such action shall forthwith notify the secretary of the Commonwealth of such vote.

It is now suggested that the words "which towns at an annual meeting vote that primaries be held therein," require, upon the part of towns which at the last State election voted to accept the provisions of the statute in accordance with the terms of section 18, a further vote of acceptance at an annual town meeting before the statute may become operative therein.

The words "annual meeting" by themselves are clearly applicable only to the annual town meeting held in the several towns in either February, March or April, for the election of town officers and for the transaction of other local business (see R. L., c. 11, §§ 327, 334, etc.), and do not apply to nor include a town meeting called for the purpose of choosing State officers. There is, therefore, an apparent contradiction in terms between the provisions of section 2 and section 18 as to the time when the statute shall be accepted and shall become effective in towns in which official ballots are used, the former designating an annual town meeting held in the spring as the proper time for such acceptance, and the latter requiring a vote thereon at the State election for the current year.

I am of opinion, however, that this contradiction is rather apparent than real. It is a well-recognized rule that in the construction of statutes the legislative intent is to be ascertained from a consideration of the act as a whole, and that, if possible, inconsistencies are to be harmonized so as to give reasonable effect to each of its provisions. Applying this principle to St. 1903, c. 454, it is clear that the Legislature intended that the act should be accepted at the next annual State election after the passage of the act, to wit, the election held upon Nov. 3, 1903, and in section 18 such intention is set forth in express terms. This being so, it is obvious that the provision in section 2, regulating the conduct of caucuses in towns which at an annual meeting have voted that primaries should be held therein, cannot be construed to require an additional vote of acceptance by such towns; for, if so construed, it would require a double referendum in the case of towns, and the provision of section 18 would be entirely without effect. If, on the other hand, the language of section 2 be construed to supplement the provisions of section 18, by providing a further opportunity for the acceptance of the statute, if for any reason such acceptance was not accomplished at the State election for the present year, there will be no inconsistency between the sections under consideration.

I am, therefore, of opinion that in all cases where towns have accepted the provisions of St. 1903, c. 454, at the State election held on November 3 of the present year, no further action is necessary in order that the act may become fully operative in accordance with the provisions of section 18; and that, in all towns where the statute was not so accepted, such towns may, at a subsequent annual town meeting, vote upon the acceptance of the statute.

I am, with great respect, Very truly yours,

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

OPINIONS UPON APPLICATIONS

FOR LEAVE TO FILE INFORMATIONS IN THE NAME OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL v. CHARLES C. SPEARE et als.

Election — Precinct — Election Officers — Misconduct — Attorney-General.

Where, at an election in a town divided into precincts for voting purposes, the election officers in two precincts, before any vote was cast, unlawfully entertained and declared carried motions to adjourn the meetings, and, without regarding the protests of qualified voters present and desiring to vote, adjourned the meeting and carried away the ballot boxes, but the remaining precincts proceeded with the election and filled the offices named in the warrant, the misconduct of the election officers in the precincts where meetings were adjourned does not invalidate the election legally held in the remaining precincts of the town; and if there was a regular and proper expression of the public choice in the precincts where voting took place, the candidates so chosen and the questions so decided must be accepted.

The Attorney-General will not sign an information against certain respondents alleged to have been illegally elected to office at a town election, where there are no other claimants to the offices held by such respondents, and it appears that, notwithstanding the illegality alleged, there has been a legal and proper expression of the choice of the voters of such town upon the questions presented in the warrant for such election.

APRIL 29, 1908.

This was an application to the Attorney-General for the filing of an information against certain respondents alleged to have been illegally chosen to the several town offices in the town of Templeton. The petition sets forth, and the allegations of fact are not controverted, that a warrant for the annual town meeting for the year 1903 in the town of Templeton (which, for voting purposes is divided into four precincts) was duly issued by the selectmen and was properly served; that, under the provisions of such warrant, the qualified voters of the town were notified to meet in their respective precincts on March 2, for the election, on one ballot, of the following town officers: town clerk, one selectman for three years, treasurer, tax collector, tree warden, two auditors, and seven constables; and also for the purpose of voting, by separate ballot, yes or no in answer to the question, "Shall licenses be granted for the sale of intoxicating liquors in this town?" The warrant further provided that the polls should be opened at 8 o'clock in the forenoon and might be closed at 2 o'clock in the afternoon; and due notice was given of a second meeting, to be held in a central place, on March 7, to act upon the remaining articles contained in such warrant.

After the opening of the town meeting of March 2, motions were entertained in precincts 1 and 2 to adjourn the meeting of such precincts to April 6; and in spite of protests made by certain of the qualified voters thereof, the meetings were in consequence adjourned, and the election officers refused to receive any ballots, and removed the poll boxes. It is further alleged and admitted that by this action of the election officers some of the legal voters of such precincts were deprived of elective franchise.

The votes cast in precincts 8 and 4 were, however, duly counted, and the officers named in the warrant were declared duly elected, and the vote of the town upon the question of license was declared to be: "No, 161; yes, 168." It appeared at the hearing that all the requirements of law were complied with in precincts 3 and 4, and that, if the full vote of precincts 1 and 2 had been cast, it would not have affected the result except in the matter of license, upon which question it was admitted that such vote might have been material.

There were at the time of the election no contestants for the offices now held by the respondents, and such officers were, with one exception, duly elected to the positions which they now hold, at the town meeting of the previous year.

Revised Laws, c. 11, § 213, provides in part that:—

In towns, at the election of state and town officers, the polls may be opened as early as six o'clock in the forenoon and shall be opened as early as twelve o'clock, noon, and shall be kept open at least four hours, and until the time specified in the warrant when they may be closed; and they may be kept open for such longer time as the meeting shall direct, but they shall not be kept open after the hour of sunset. At annual town meetings they shall be kept open at least one hour for the reception of votes upon the question of licensing the sale of intoxicating liquors.

It cannot be doubted that the action of the election officers in precincts 1 and 2 was a clear violation of this section, for which they are liable in a criminal prosecution, and probably also responsible civilly, if, by their action, any legal voter is deprived of his right to exercise the franchise. But the misconduct or fraud of officers who are charged with the conduct of an election does not necessarily result in invalidating the whole election. It is a well-established principle of law that the misconduct of election officers or irregularities in the method of conducting an election will not vitiate such election unless it appeared that the result was thereby affected. See Major v. Barker, 99 Ky. 305, etc. Nor will the fact that the requirements of law with regard to the opening and closing of polls have been disregarded, be sufficient of itself to invalidate the election, in the absence of evidence that the result was thereby materially changed or affected. Fry v. Booth, 19 Ohio St. 25; Cleland v. Porter, 74 Ill. 76; Du Page County et al. v. People ex rel., 65 Ill. 360.

If, therefore, the sole question presented by the petition in this case was as to the legality of the election of the respondents, there would be no good and sufficient reason for action upon the part of the Attorney-General. It may be assumed, however, upon the evidence presented, that the vote of precincts 1 and 2 could have materially affected the action of the town upon the question of license; and for this reason it is necessary to consider whether the irregularity of the officers of those precincts will render invalid the whole election in the town of Templeton. No allegation of fraud or collusion is made in the petition, and it may be assumed that the motion to adjourn was made in good faith, and that the adjournment which resulted was in accordance with the wishes of a majority of the voters present at the time, although clearly illegal. Such adjournment would not of itself, however, invalidate an election subsequently held within the time required by law, in such precincts. See People ex rel. v. Brewer, 20 Ill. 474. But the removal of the ballot boxes in such precincts by the election officers and the refusal thereafter to receive votes, by which a subsequent election was prevented, constitutes a violation of the Revised Laws, c. 211, § 213, and it is contended by the relator that this illegality vitiates the whole election in the town of Templeton, notwithstanding the fact that the elections held in the remaining precincts were regular, and the officers elected thereat were duly certified and returned in compliance with law.

If this contention is sound, it would follow that any misconduct or irregularity on the part of election officers in a single precinct in the conduct of an election, which affected the result, would vitiate not merely the vote of such precinct, but would render null and void the whole election, notwithstanding the fact that a great majority of the voters taking part therein had legally and properly signified their choice.

The principle contended for by the relators has nowhere received the sanction of authority.

In Knowles v. Yeates, 31 Cal. 82, where in a county election a question arose as to the legality of the votes of four precincts, the vote of such precinct was rejected, but the election was not invalidated. See, also, Tebbe v. Smith, 108 Cal. 101.

In Major v. Barker, 99 Ky. 305, the contention of the contestant was that the whole vote of a precinct should be thrown out by reason of the misconduct of an election officer, but no question was raised as to the validity of the election. See, also, Fry v. Booth, 19 Ohio St. 25; Du Page County et al. v. People ex rel., 65 Ill. 360, etc.

I am opinion, therefore, that, although the votes cast in certain precincts must be rejected where it appears that, by reason of the misconduct of the election officers, the result of the election has been materially changed or affected, such misconduct cannot be deemed to vitiate the whole election; and if there has been a legal and proper expression of the public choice in other precincts, the candidates chosen or the questions decided thereat must be accepted. Nor does the fact that the election officers in precincts 1 and 2 refused to receive any votes therein, distinguish in principle the present case from one where a vote is cast and afterwards rejected by reason of some irregularity or informality. See Knowles v. Yeates, 31 Cal. 82.

Upon the foregoing facts and for the foregoing reasons, therefore, I am of opinion that no public purpose can be served by this information. There has been what, in my opinion, constitutes a legal expression of the choice of the people of the town of Templeton upon the question of license; and, to the offices held by the respondents, there appear to be no claimants whose rights might be defeated or lost by failure to file this information. I am, therefore, of the opinion that it is the duty of the Attorney-General to refuse the application.

HERBERT PARKER, Attorney-General.

Frank M. Forbush, for the relators.

Thomas W. Kennefick, for the respondents.
